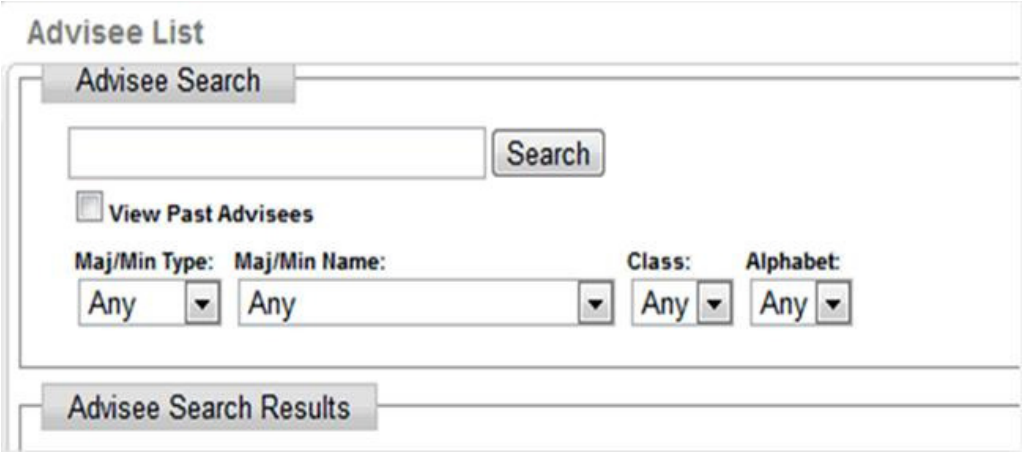
Updates To The Online Advising System

We have just published an update to the Advisee Search function for the Online Advising Notes. The graphic below shows the addition. You can now search by: Major 1, 2, 3, and Minor 1, 2, 3, Major/Minor Name, Class, and Alphabet. When you select the dropdown menu for each, it will only display the categories for your advisees.



The Academic Advising Committee is continuing to work with CTC-Web Development Group to enhance and improve this resource. Please let us know if you have suggestions for improvement.

New Staff Member

Julianne Essmiller is the new Student Assistant in the Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center. Julianne is a Senior from Great Bend, KS and is currently pursuing a B.A. in Sociology. Julianne assists with advising undecided students and career exploration appointments.

Maxient Report It Form

(Accessible through TigerCentral)

If There Is Immediate Risk To Life Or Property, Dial 911.

The Office of Student Affairs at Fort Hays State University has the responsibility of responding to and adjudicating reports of alleged student misconduct under the Student Code of Conduct and Student Discipline policies.

The Behavioral Intervention Team depends upon every member of the FHSU community to support campus safety & security. If you have been involved in an incident or witnessed an incident that might be considered a dangerous or threatening event, call 911 immediately. If you believe a faculty member, staff member, or student may pose a threat to himself or herself or to others, contact University Police (5304), the Kelly Center (4401), the Office of Student Affairs (5824), or any other university official to express your concerns You may also report any concerns via this website:

Navigator Award Winner

Congratulations go to Mr. Cole Engel 2012 Navigator Award Recipient.

The Navigator Award was established in 1998 by the Student Government Association to recognize an outstanding academic advisor based on how closely she or he adheres to the university goals for academic advising. All academic advisors are eligible for this award. Past award recipients will become eligible after a five-year waiting period. Candidates are nominated, interviewed and selected by graduating seniors.

Edmund Shearer Faculty Advising Award Winners

Congratulations go to Dr. Robert Moody 2011-2012 Edmund Shearer Faculty Advisor of the Year.

The Edmund Shearer Faculty Advisor of the Year Award is presented to individuals who have demonstrated qualities associated with outstanding academic advising of on- and off-campus students. One advisor is recognized from each of the four colleges (Arts and Sciences, Business and Entrepreneurship, Education and Technology, and Health and Life Sciences). The Edmund Shearer Faculty Advisor of the Year recipient is selected from one of the four college winners. This year's winner is Dr. Robert Moody.

Academic Advising Committee

The purpose of the Academic Advising Committee is to implement and continuously improve a university academic advising plan designed to help on-campus and off-campus students understand institutional policies and procedures, learn about curriculum and career choices, and provide counseling about a wide range of academic decisions. The committee is responsible for assessment of institutional advising, implementation of the Regents' academic advising baseline, selection of outstanding advisors for awards, and other activities and initiatives related to the University's academic advising function.

Committee meetings will be held in September, October, November, February, March, and April this year. Minutes will be posted on the AACE Web site.
