Staff Development Committee

In 1993-94 the Faculty Development Committee, Faculty Orientation and Reorientation Committee, and the Steering Committee for Chair Development were combined to form this new committee. In 1998-1999 the provost dropped the COD representative from the representation. In 2004-2005 the Faculty Development Committee and the Staff Development Committee was split into the Faculty Development Committee and the Staff Development Committee. In 2008-2009 the Staff Development Committee was moved to Administration and Finance.

Purpose: Devote energy and resources to the development of local staff expertise. This expertise serves as a resource base for the creation of classified and unclassified professional staff development activities appropriate to the University.

Representation: Two representatives from Classified Senate and three representatives from unclassified professional staff.

Chair: Appointed by VP for Administration and Finance.

How Appointed: Classified senate president makes recommendations for classified representatives; VP for Administration and Finance selects unclassified professional staff.

When Appointed: Spring

Rotation: Three-year rotating membership. (One-third of Committee appointed each year.)
