BUILDING COMMUNITY AND CREATING MEMORIES

The beginning of the school year can be an exciting time – yet also one of anxiety and stress. The thought of finding classes, buying books, and adjusting to college life may seem overwhelming. But college is also about making new friends, enjoying new freedoms, spreading your wings, and having fun. Augustfest 2012 is a series of events, activities, programs, and opportunities designed to welcome and introduce you to campus life. These events are geared toward all new and returning students, faculty, and staff. Augustfest is a time for the entire campus community to kick back, have some laughs, and get to know each other.

We invite you to take advantage of these first few weeks of Augustfest and get involved – while creating memories and friendships that will last a lifetime.
