PERSONALITY

PERSONALITY General Description:

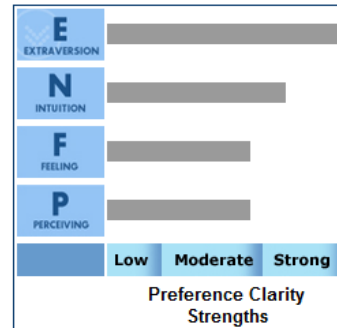

ENFPs are friendly and creative. They have an almost supernatural ability to accurately "read" people and events. ENFPs are curious, wanting to know what else besides the routine approach might work, and they are flexible, always willing to try something new. They are bored with regular routine and find themselves pulled to new adventures before they've finished their old ones. ENFPs can be persuasive speakers, able to communicate a vision more easily than others can and often make dynamic leaders.

Summary of Careers

Being sensitive to people and interested in their welfare, ENFPs develop good people skills in such areas as communication, conflict resolution, listening, problem solving and mediation. The best careers for ENFPs will respect their desire to help others in imaginative ways within a work setting that is free from bureaucratic rules. Careers that honor an ENFP's strengths include counselling, teaching (art, music, drama), psychology, acting and entertainment, clergy and public relations.
