

Teaching Excellence and Integrated Technologies

New Faculty Workshop Schedule – August 7-9, 2013 Memorial Union Stouffer Lounge Presented by the Center for Teaching Excellence and Learning Technologies (CTELT)

Welcome to Fort Hays State University!

This workshop is designed to introduce you to the many instructional resources and tools you have available as an FHSU faculty member, as well as begin a year-long discussion about quality in teaching and course design. Below is an overview of events; you'll receive a detailed schedule when you arrive and check in.

At the end of this workshop, you will be able to:

- Use a basic instructional design model to plan your courses
- Explain the value of a learning-centered course
- Choose and apply appropriate technologies for various types of learning activities
- Identify your areas of strength as a teacher and those areas in which you'd like to improve
- Identify instructional strategies for higher order thinking that are appropriate for your courses

Wednesday, August 7

- 8:00 Check In and Continental Breakfast
 8:30 Welcome, Introductions, and Provost's Keynote:
 The "Why" Behind the Choices: Exploring the Crossroads of 21st Century Learning and Technology
- 9:30 Whole-group Session: Foundations for Teaching, Learning, and Technology
- 12:00 Lunch (provided)

1:00 Small-group Workshops A variety of topics will be offered, some required and some optional. You'll have the opportunity to sign up for the sessions that best meet your needs, interest, and technology skills level. (Examples include: Introduction to Blackboard, Designing and Using Rubrics, Synchronous Communication Tools, Using the Bb Grade Center, Voice Thread, and Google Apps.)

- 3:15 Whole-group Session: Open Educational Resources
- 4:00 Adjourn
- 6:00 Social/Dinner Activity on Campus

Thursday, August 8

- 8:00 Continental Breakfast and Informal Discussion
- 8:30 Whole-group Sessions: Instructional Design and Assessment of Student Learning Progress
- 12:00 Lunch (provided)
- 1:00 Small-group Workshops
- 3:15 Whole-group Session: FHSU's Online Course Development Process
- 4:00 Summary and Wrap-up

Friday, August 9

- 8:00 Continental Breakfast and Informal Discussion
- 8:30 Whole-group Sessions: Faculty Panel, Course Evaluations, and Social Network
- 11:30 Wrap-up