ENGLISH MINOR

Adding a minor in English to one's degree program allows a student to develop vital reading, writing, and critical thinking skills.

The English minor program consists of 21 credit hours of English courses, excluding the six-hour general-education composition requirement.

Since the minor is not a prescribed sequence of courses, students may select any courses that meet their needs and interests.

Language/Writing Emphasis Literature Emphasis (21 hours chosen from this list) (21 hours chosen from this list) Language Skills in the Professions * 125 World Literature & the Human Experience 121 3 cr. 3 cr. 146 Introduction to Creative Writing 3 cr. * 126 Introduction to Literature 3 cr. 246 Technical & Report Writing 3 cr. 307 Introduction to Literary Theory & Analysis 3 cr. 346 Advanced Creative Writing 3 cr. * 327 Introduction to Fiction 3 cr. (may be taken twice) Survey of American Literature I 346 3 cr. 251 3 cr. Professional Editing Survey of American Literature II 385 3 cr. 252 3 cr. 261 446 Advanced Composition 3 cr. Survey of English Literature I 3 cr. 447 Professional and Community-Based Writing. 3 cr. 262 Survey of English Literature II 3 cr. 449 Writing for Publication 3 cr. 652 Studies in American Literary Periods 3 cr. 602 Topics in Writing 3 cr. 653 Studies in American Literary Types 3 cr. 602 (may be taken twice—dif. topics) 3 cr. 654 Major American Authors 3 cr. 680 Introduction to Linguistic Sciences 3 cr. 655 Regional Literature of the US 3 cr. Traditional English Grammar Studies in English Literary Periods 682 3 cr. 662 3 cr. History of the English Language 663 Studies in English Literary Types 683 3 cr. 3 cr. Modern Grammar & Usage Major British Authors 685 664 3 cr. 3 cr. Studies in Folklore & Mythology 694 3 cr. 695 Comparative Studies in Literature 3 cr.

Customized Program
(21 hours chosen from all English department offerings above the 120 level)

^{*}Meets General Education Requirements