

Geosciences Pumpkin Carving Contest

We're looking for the best original designs whether the carvings are easy, moderate or challenging. All winning contest entries will be on display Oct. 30 during the Geosciences Halloween Party.

Contest Categories

There is only one category, Geosciences. Carvings can be geology or geography themed. You may use faces, animals, scenes, lettering, shadows, and sculpting as well as other artistic carving techniques to set your pumpkin apart.

How to Enter

1. Sign-up for the contest anytime during Earth Sciences Week (Oct. 11-17) in the Geosciences Office, Tomanek Hall 233.
2. Pick up your pumpkin (or you are welcome to use your own pumpkin) anytime between Oct. 20-23 at the Geosciences Office.
3. Bring your carved creation back to the Geosciences office by 12:00 noon on Tuesday, Oct. 27th for judging and display.

Prizes

One Grand Prize winner will be selected. But all creations will be enjoyed by all in attendance at the Geosciences Halloween Party.

Contest Rules

1. No purchase necessary. (Although we would appreciate it if you provided your own pumpkin).
2. Late entries will not be considered.
3. By entering the contest, entrants accept and agree to these rules and the decision of the judges, which shall be final. Entrants also agree to allow the Geosciences Department to publish the winner's name, contest entry, likeness and/or other related information on the department website and Facebook page.
4. Prizes: One Grand Prize winner will be selected and a prize awarded.
5. Contest open to FHSU students, faculty and staff only.
