

Crime Alert

Aggravated Burglary & Criminal Damage to Property

A Georgia man, Nathaniel Lewis Brown, age 23, was arrested by FHSU Police this morning, May 19, 2009, 6:00 a.m., at the Fort Hays State University Campus. The suspect was alleged to have committed Aggravated Burglary and Criminal Damage to Property, which occurred at McMIndes Hall. No one was hurt during the alleged event and the University Police Department was assisted by officers from the Hays Police Department and the Ellis County Sheriff's Department. The suspect is not affiliated with the University and does not reside in Kansas. Further details will be released as warranted.

Please keep in mind the arrest and/or charging of an individual for criminal wrong-doing is merely an allegation of wrong-doing. All persons maintain the presumption of innocence unless and until proven guilty in a Court of law.

Issued 05/19/09

Fort Hays State University Police
Center of Public Safety
Custer Hall 112