Gillogly reports Allocations deadline on Friday for committee to review. Gillogly attended university press conference this week in regards to Dr. Herb Songer's resignation and thanked him for his dedication to the staff and university. This week began work on creating a letter to send out to all graduating seniors for Navigator Award. FHSU KS Student Legal Services began research for Dr. Bannister and students and provide general information in this regard. Contact Heather, university counsel administrative assistant, for questions. Gillogly met with Shana Meyer Wednesday to discuss higher education day, as well as the upcoming allocation and EOF schedule. Gillogly spoke with Mark Pahls about coming to visit with the Senate on the 7th of Feb, and set up open forums with Todd Powell and Kent Steward to discuss the Crisis Management Plan on the 14th of Feb. Two new waivers, 08/S/100 and 08/S/101, concerning Non-SOC recognized organizations and equipment fund with reduced percentages of Allocations budget allotted. In closing, Gillogly discussed the plans for Aaron Pablo and new senator pictures to be taken by Mitch Weber for Thursday next week between 3-4pm. Be there promptly.
 - b. Vice President
Attended University Press Conference to announce the retirement of Dr. Herb Songer, VP for Student Affairs and SGA Advisor and wished him the best of luck. Engel spent the majority of the week responding to allocations questions and working with Senator and Allocations Chairman John Newman to establish the schedule and procedure for this year. Engel noted that copies of last year's allocations bill and recommendations were placed in allocations committee members' mailboxes. Engel noted that bills 07/S/122 and 07/S/123 will be very helpful during the allocations hearings over the next three weeks for historical reference purposes. Engel also met with three new senators that were ratified at the previous senate meeting and gave them a brief senate orientation this week. VP Engel appointed them to standing committees as they will be sworn in tonight. VP Engel welcomed them to the senate floor. Engel notes to senate to sign up for office hours tonight or tomorrow with any changes if not already done so.
 - c. Executive Assistant
Ohl joined Pres. Gillogly and VP Engel at press conference this week, answering questions and organizing for the week. Ohl also mentioned that the polos that were due this week will not be available until next week.
