Camp. I understand and agree as follows:

As the parent/guardian of the minor listed above, I consent to his/her participation in the High Plains Band & Orchestra Camp. I understand and agree as follows:

1. I hereby release and discharge Fort Hays State University and its regents, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns, on behalf of myself and my legal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, including any injury, illness, or death of anyone, which is claimed to be the result of my child/ward's participation in the High Plains Band Camp.

2. I understand that Fort Hays State University does not provide any insurance for program participants, including but not limited to health insurance.

3. My child/ward is healthy and able to fully participate in all camp activities.

4. I understand that children will not be identified by name and however presented, including claims of negligence, arising in any way out of student's participation in the High Plains Band Camp.

5. I understand that Fort Hays State University does not provide any insurance for program participants, including but not limited to health and liability insurance.

6. I have read this waiver carefully and I understand and agree to be bound by the provisions herein.

7. I agree to abide by the rules of the High Plains Band Camp as indicated in the brochure and the "newsletter" that will be mailed to the camper. By signing herein, the participant and participant's parents or guardians specifically waive any liability of Fort Hays State University, its employees, staff members or authorized agents for acts that cause loss or injury to participant or participant's property during this event. Participant and participant's parent also hereby hold Fort Hays State University, its employees, staff members or authorized agents harmless from and against any and all claims, of whatever nature and from whomever and howsoever presented, including claims of negligence, arising in any way out of student's participation in the High Plains Band Camp.

By signing this waiver, you agree to the terms and conditions stated above.

WHAT HAPPENS?

All students are placed in at least one large ensemble (band or orchestra) after their first-year audition on Sunday. All other classes are determined by students' preferences. If the number of students in the requested small ensemble exceeds the limit, students will be placed at a later date.

LEISURE

Students are encouraged to participate in social activities to build camaraderie. Activities include game nights, movies, karaoke, and more. Special events scheduled include a concert for the family and a costume parade.

CLASSIFICATION

High school level: students entering grades 9-12 in Fall 2010, in addition to 2010 high school graduates.

Housing

All residence facilities are air-conditioned. Residence hall facilities are strictly supervised. Middle school and high school campers may not room together. No extra-pay options are offered. Non-resident campers must have the option of bringing a lunch from home or purchasing a meal card at enrollment.

Fees & FINANCIAL AID

The $495 fee includes tuition, room, meals, extensive music instruction and coaching. Discounts are available for large groups and families. Non-resident campers have the option of bringing a noon lunch or purchasing a meal card at enrollment.

APPLICATION

All high school auditions are held at 11:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. Audition fees range from $10 to $20 and include a minimum of $10 for national or international guest artists. Non-refundable deposits are required for each ensemble and are due by June 10. Full payment is due by June 10. The application fee is non-refundable.

STUDENT HONOR RECITAL

Several students will be selected to perform on Wednesday evening during the Honor Recital. All campers may attend a selection of small ensembles that are performed in a competition by May 15, 2010. More information available on the Web site under scholarship tab. Students selected for the recital will be notified by May 15, 2010.

TALENT SHOW

Following the Honor Recital on Wednesday is the Talent Show (Music Camp Idol). Any current HPCO camper is eligible to audition for the Talent Show.
