

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

March 9, 2017

Top Stories

Journey Campaign at FHSU passes halfway mark, hitting \$52 million

03/03/17

In a news conference based on the theme of “every gift matters,” the Fort Hays State University Foundation announced today that gifts to the university have passed $52 million so far in the $100 million Journey Campaign, the largest ever in the university’s history.

Hays Symphony cancels March 11, April 1 concerts; announces change to May 6 concert

03/07/17

The Hays Symphony Orchestra has announced cancellation of the concerts scheduled for March 11 and April 1 in the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center on the Fort Hays State University campus.

FHSU earns military spouse friendly designation, three No. 1 rankings in February

03/03/17

Fort Hays State University’s Virtual College was recently named a 2017 Military Spouse Friendly School by Victory Media for its accessibility, support and accommodations to military members and their families. In addition to the military spouse friendly designation, programs offered through the Virtual College received three No. 1 recognitions among numerous other rankings from various agencies.

Accomplishments and Happenings

Team from Fort Hays State takes 1st place at Washburn Leadership Challenge Event

03/07/17

A team of five organizational leadership majors from Fort Hays State University took first place at the recent Leadership Challenge Event at Washburn University, Topeka.

International keyboard festival at FHSU continues in March, April

03/08/17

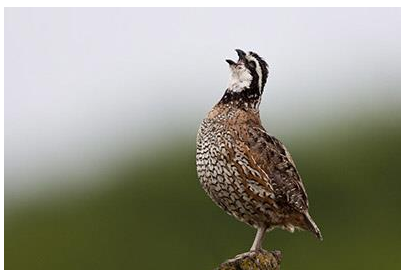

Irena Ravitskaya, concert pianist and associate professor of music at Fort Hays State University, has organized an exciting recital series starring young pianists from China, Israel, Moldavia and the United States.

Fifth free Herndon Clinic screening from Fort Hays State to be provided in Hugoton

03/03/17

The fifth of six free hearing screenings to be held across western Kansas by Fort Hays State University graduate students will be offered in Hugoton.

Learning to listen to animals, a program at the Kansas Wetlands Education Center

03/03/17

Chirps, whistles, croaks, and clicks all combine in an animal opera of high drama for eavesdropping scientists. The public can discover what animals are saying during the free program, "Listening to Animals," at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 12, at the Kansas Wetlands Education Center at the Cheyenne Bottoms Refuge, northeast of Great Bend on K-156.

Legendary football coach to speak at FHSU

03/03/17

Legendary high school football coach Herman Boone, whose story was told in the movie "Remember the Titans," is scheduled to speak at Fort Hays State University at 6 p.m. Tuesday, March 14, at Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center.

Fort Hays State recognizes area students for scholarships at Salina program

03/03/17

Students from the north-central Kansas region were recognized at a recent Student Recognition Program in Salina for the scholarships they have been awarded from Fort Hays State University for the 2017-18 academic year.

Fort Hays State recognizes area students for scholarships at Wichita program

03/06/17

Students from the south-central and southeast Kansas region were recognized at the recent Student Recognition Program in Wichita for the scholarships they have been awarded from Fort Hays State University for the 2017-18 academic year.

FHSU to host landlord fair for the 2017-18 academic year

03/06/17

The Fort Hays State University Student Government Association and the Rules of Rent Team of the Leadership 310 class will host a landlord fair for all students and community members who are looking for a place to live for the 2017-18 academic year.

FHSU Faculty members present in Phnom Penh

03/07/17

Jason Harper and Douglas Neagoy, lecturers of English in Fort Hays State University's Virtual College International, recently presented "Lineage Narratives Across Borders: A Pedagogical Model of Critical Literacy and Intercultural Rhetoric" at a conference on teaching the English language in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu