

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

December 22, 2016

Top Stories

FHSU Student Recognition Programs for 2017 begin in Overland Park on Jan. 26

12/21/16

The time is now for high school students in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska to sign up for the 2017 edition of Fort Hays State University's program to recognize prospective college students and their families.

CSD Department at FHSU receives FEES equipment, training service

12/22/16

Fort Hays State University's Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders was able to purchase portable Fiberoptic Endoscopic Evaluation of Swallowing (FEES) equipment thanks to a Kansas Masonic Foundation grant awarded at the end of the spring 2016 semester.

Outstanding FHSU nursing graduates named for fall 2016

12/16/16

Outstanding fall 2016 graduates were announced in a pinning ceremony Dec. 16 by the Department of Nursing.

Department of Psychology signs agreement with Midwestern University

12/16/16

Fort Hays State University's Department of Psychology recently entered an articulation agreement with Midwestern University in Glendale, Ariz., that will guarantee interviews and reserve five acceptances into Midwestern's Clinical Psychology Program, accredited by the American Psychological Association.

FHSU Commencement 2017 combines graduate, undergraduate ceremonies

12/22/16

Commencement 2017 at Fort Hays State University has been revised. Master's and education specialist graduates will be recognized in the same commencement ceremonies as undergraduate students from the same colleges.

Feature

FHSU students can dress for success

12/19/16

Imagine a Fort Hays State University student who has an important interview with a prospective employer but doesn't have proper business attire. Felix Albl hopes to solve that problem starting spring semester 2017 with Tailored for Tigers.

Accomplishments and Happenings

FHSU announces hours over semester break

11/20/16

With classes completed for the fall 2016 semester, Fort Hays State University is following holiday hours through Monday, Jan. 16, 2017. The university will be closed from Friday, Dec. 23, through Monday, Jan. 2. Regular campus office hours resume Tuesday, Jan. 3. Classes resume Tuesday, Jan. 17.

Associate professor of music and theatre to teach in Italy
12/19/16

Dr. Joseph Perniciaro, associate professor of music and theatre, has been invited to teach in Vipiteno, Italy, at the annual international Orfeo Music Festival in July 2017.

Students, Hispanic College Institute receive awards
12/20/16

Two students and the FHSU Hispanic College Institute recently received awards focused on their achievements.

FHSU academic advisor receives NACADA award
12/19/16

Erica Fisher, an academic advisor for the Department of Teacher Education, was selected as a National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) Region 7 Certificate of Merit Winner for Excellence in Advising for 2017.

SMEI announces winners from MakerSpace holiday ornament competition
12/16/16

Fort Hays State University's Science and Mathematics Education Institute's first-place winner from the recent MakerSpace holiday ornament competition was Jenna Klein, Abilene sophomore, who won a $25 Applebee's gift card.

STM-Ed students explain science behind Christmas
12/16/16

Students from Fort Hays State University's Science Technology and Mathematics Education program recently performed their annual science and math Christmas show for more than 130 children and parents.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu