

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

January 15, 2016

In Case You Missed It ...

U.S. News & World Report ranks FHSU online education among best in nation

1/12/16
For a fifth consecutive year, Fort Hays State University has placed programs in the top echelon of U.S. News and World Report's annual rankings of online education. More

Features

People of Excellence: Another FHSU student advances to Miss Kansas Pageant

1/13/16
By Diane Gasper-O'Brien
Kelsey Cohoon learned a long time ago to expect the unexpected.

A Fort Hays State University sophomore from Jetmore, Cohoon started dancing at age 2 and has been involved in cheerleading since seventh grade. One of the stunts on the FHSU cheer squad who does flying leaps as part of her routine, Cohoon knows she always has to be on her toes. One slip-up by her or her base could prove dangerous.

But nothing could have prepared Cohoon for an unforeseen happening on the first Saturday of the new year. More

Accomplishments and Happenings

Shuttle service starts on the FHSU campus as construction overtakes parking

1/15/16
With construction projects looming over the Fort Hays State University campus, parking will become scarce, but students will be able to park at Gross Memorial Coliseum and take a new shuttle service. More

Staff beats faculty in volleyball match-up

1/15/16
The result was the same at the beginning of the spring semester as it was in the fall. As a result, the Fort Hays State University staff kept bragging rights in its corner, defeating the FHSU faculty 2-1 in a faculty-staff volleyball match Friday in Gross Memorial Coliseum. More

Director Howell appointed to regional council

1/15/16
Ed Howell, director of the Fort Hays State University Police Department, has been appointed as the Northwest Region representative for the Homeland Security Council for the Kansas Association of Chiefs of Police.

Howell is in his 30th year in the FHSU Police Department, including the last 10 as department chief. He is a member of the KACP board, and his term as president of the organization ended last October. More

Survey of public universities in Kansas shows strong opposition to law allowing guns on campus

1/13/16
A state law will make it legal to carry concealed weapons into campus buildings beginning in July 2017, and to prepare for that change, the Docking Institute of Public Affairs at Fort Hays State University conducted a survey to gather opinions from faculty and staff at universities throughout the Kansas Board of Regents system. More

FHSU Student Recognition Programs for 2016 begin in Wichita on Jan. 24

1/12/16
Fort Hays State University's annual 13-city program of recognizing prospective college students and their families will kick off in Wichita at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 24, with a program at the Marriott, 9100 Corporate Hills Drive. More

FHSU to host workshop on holocaust education

1/11/16
Fort Hays State University will host an interdisciplinary workshop titled "Educational Approaches to the Holocaust" from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Jan. 18, in the Stouffer Lounge of FHSU's Memorial Union. More

Coming Up

Professors' art to be displayed at Moss-Thorns Gallery on FHSU Campus

1/7/16
An exhibit of almost 40 oil and acrylic paintings will open in Fort Hays State University's Moss-Thorns Gallery of Art on Monday, Jan. 11. The Ballougan Exhibition showcases the collaborative work of Joel Dugan, assistant professor of art and design at FHSU, and Matt Ballou, associate teaching professor at the University of Missouri. More

Check out the online FHSU Master Calendar for daily events on campus.

Do you have good news to share? Click Submit News here or in the News section of the FHSU home page and use our online form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.