

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

February 26, 2016

In Case You Missed It ...

President Martin and Fort Hays State garner 2 awards at national fraternity training academy

2/26/16
Dr. Mirta M. Martin, president of Fort Hays State University, won an award in Oklahoma City last weekend as University Partner of the Year for the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity for her work to ensure a safe living and learning environment for students. More

Features

FHSU student makes a difference with poster

2/26/16
By Randy Gonzales
FHSU University Relations and Marketing
Some people live to be old and gray and wonder if they made a difference in this world.

Jill Herbert won't be one of those people. Herbert, a Fort Hays State University senior graphic design major from Wichita, already has made an impact. More

Like father, like son for Tiger basketball team

2/23/16
By Diane Gasper-O'Brien
FHSU University Relations and Marketing
Much like so many other games the past three years, Jake Stoppel greeted family members and friends following Saturday's 79-65 Tiger victory at Gross Memorial Coliseum. But this was different. More

Accomplishments and Happenings

FHSU's Dr. Moriuchi publishes textbook on social media marketing

2/25/16
Dr. Emi Moriuchi, assistant professor of marketing at Fort Hays State University, has published a textbook, "Social Media Marketing: Strategies in Utilizing Consumer-Generated Content," published by Business Expert Press. More

Graphic design students bloom in 'CEREUS' exhibit

2/24/16
When choosing a theme for Fort Hays State University's 2016 BFA Graphic Design Exhibition, this year's senior graphic design students agreed to a title that compares their class to a genus of flowering plants that blooms at night, called "CEREUS."

Art and Design Department Chair Karrie Simpson Voth said it was a fitting parallel. More

Reading rewards

2/24/16 via The Hays Daily News
Every Tuesday and Thursday, Fort Hays State University students and elementary students within the community are teaming up to reap the benefits of reading.

FHSU's Correction of Reading Disabilities class, which soon will be renamed Literacy Assessment and Intervention, provides college students the opportunity to work hands-on with first- through fourth-graders who have been chosen by their teachers to receive a little extra help with the various areas of reading. More

ADP Hosts Times Talk: Tiger Food Exchange

2/24/16 via Tiger Media Network
The American Democracy Project hosted a Times Talk on Tuesday, February 23rd at 12:00 p.m. in Forsyth Library as a way to inform Fort Hays students and faculty about The Tiger Food Exchange, and the importance of students having access to fresh foods. Sarah Bailey, the head coordinator, led the discussion about all of the different ways the Tiger Food Exchange is looking to help make a difference on the FHSU campus. More

FHSU's Entrepreneur Direct series will present entrepreneurs from Hays area at next event

2/22/16
Fort Hays State University has produced entrepreneurs who are scattered across America and beyond, but the university is particularly proud of those who have remained in northwest Kansas. More

FHSU seniors supply perfect regular season at GMC

2/20/16 via The Hays Daily News
The No. 10 Fort Hays State University women's basketball team celebrated the winningest four-year senior class in program history on Saturday afternoon, and the group of four seniors continued to add to their legacy with a 91-63 win over visiting Lincoln at Gross Memorial Coliseum. More

FHSU's ag quiz bowl team wins another title, trophy on display at Saturday's basketball games

2/19/16
Saturday is designated as Senior Day at Gross Memorial Coliseum, a day traditionally scheduled to honor seniors on the Fort Hays State University men's and women's basketball teams.

But the work of another group of FHSU seniors also will be featured at GMC. More

Coming Up

Tigers host Central Missouri to open MIAA play

2/25/16
Fort Hays State Baseball opens MIAA play with a three-game home series against Central Missouri this weekend (Feb. 26-28). The Tigers and the Mules will play one game three consecutive days starting on Friday and wrapping up on Sunday. More

MakerSpace hosting Break It Day, Make It Day

2/15/16
MakerSpace at Fort Hays State University will host a day to break things and a day to put them back together.

Break It Day is from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 20, and Make It Day is from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, March 5. More

FHSU's MDC offers advanced grant writing workshop

2/15/16
The Management Development Center at Fort Hays State University will offer a workshop, "Advanced Grant Writing," at 9 a.m. Friday, March 4, in the Expeditions Room of the Sternberg Museum of Natural History.

Participants will learn how to target federal and non-federal funding sources through proven methods designed to increase the probability of funding. Leslie Paige, coordinator for FHSU's Office of Scholarship and Sponsored Projects, will facilitate. More

Storyteller, comedian to speak at FHSU

2/15/16
Best-selling author Steve Gilliland will speak on the Fort Hays State University campus at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 1, in Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center.

Gilliland's talk, "Enjoy their Ride," is designed to allow people to examine where they are in the lives, both personally and professionally. The aim is to lift people up and inspire them to evolve and appreciate life, rather than simply maintain and exist. More

Check out the online FHSU Master Calendar for daily events on campus.

Do you have good news to share? Click Submit News here or in the News section of the FHSU home page and use our online form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.