In Case You Missed It ...

New director named for FHSU’s Kelly Center

Gina Smith has accepted the position as director of the Kelly Center at Fort Hays State University. She will begin her role July 1.

FHSU welcomes new orchestra director

Shokhrukh Sadikov thinks big. He is the new director of orchestras at Fort Hays State University, and he plans to help Hays reach its full potential to make it an even more exciting environment for students.

Instructor establishes scholarship in support of students

Cole Engel, an instructor in the College of Business and Entrepreneurship at Fort Hays State University, has established a scholarship to help students.

FHSU’s leader reacts to tax bill

A deep sense of relief has been a hallmark of virtually everyone’s reaction to the much-delayed end of the 2015 Kansas legislative session, but for Fort Hays State University President Mirta M. Martin, that feeling was among the deepest in the state: $32 million worth.

Feature

FHSU students care for orphans in Haiti

Fifty-nine Fort Hays State University students recently traveled to Haiti to teach and care for orphans.

Accomplishments and Happenings

University Support Staff Council elects officers

Proffesional/Research at international conference

Tiger Branding Tip: Capture the Moment

Nothing sells your program like genuine images of departmental activities – especially with your students! Don’t miss opportunities throughout the year to photograph activities for future marketing.

Coming Up

Graduate student to be featured in Summer Gallery Walk

Debi Cox, Fort Hays State University graduate student in Ceramics, opened her thesis exhibition last weekend in Rarick Hall. Cox’s exhibition will be open during the Summer Gallery Walk from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday, June 19, in the Moss-Thorns Gallery of Art in Rarick Hall, room 102, on the FHSU campus.

Residential Life garage sale set for June 19

Do you have good news to share? Click Submit News here or in the News section of the FHSU home page and use our online form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.