Tiger Branding Tip: Departmental Logos

Courtesy of University Relations and Marketing Creative Director Mary Ridgway

By now most all department chairs have received logo art for their respective departments and should have distributed them to their faculty and staff members. Logos sent out included several formats in color as well as black and white. There is one file marked for web/low resolution which is the one you should use for your signature on lotus notes emails.

If you are still in need of different variations or formats, please contact Mary Ridgway at mridgway@fhsu.edu and she will get those to you.
