In Case You Missed It ...

Foundation celebrates 70 years of serving Fort Hays State University and its students

The FHSU Foundation was established in 1945, and since that time, in partnership with alumni and friends, the Foundation has been a driving force in ensuring students an excellent education at Fort Hays State University. Over those 70 years, the Foundation has helped alumni and friends of Fort Hays State invest in the university according to their individual wishes. From providing scholarships for students to funding a program or initiative that meets their individual interests, people are leaving a lasting legacy.

Dennis King moves into manage enrollment and retention position at FHSU

A national search to fill the enrollment management and retention officer/assistant vice president for Student Affairs position at Fort Hays State University has been completed with the hiring of Dennis King. King has been director of the FHSU Virtual College and learning technologies since July 2004.

FHSU strives to increase college voters

On Women's Equality Day, marking the 95th anniversary for women's voting rights, students will pledge on the Fort Hays State University campus Wednesday, Aug. 26, to vote in the upcoming presidential election. The Women's Leadership Project and the American Democracy Project's goal is to not only to get students thinking about voting but also to get students researching the election, said WLP student coordinator Katie Dinges, Dodge City senior.

Accomplishments and Happenings

The Institute for New Media Studies hosts open house

On Wednesday, August 26, Fort Hays State University's Institute for New Media Studies kicked off the year with an open house in its new media lab. The four-hour event saw nearly 400 people visit the Institute. The event was attended by faculty, staff and students from every FHSU college, most departments and a number of university administrators. Off-campus community members also came to see how the Institute's resources can help the area and Tiger Community.

Herrman receives honor from High Plains

Dr. Leo Herrman, associate professor and clinical psychology program director in the Department of Psychology at Fort Hays State University, received a plaque from the governing board and staff of High Plains Mental Health Center in appreciation of his support and collaboration with their agency in training staff in suicide assessment and crisis management.

Herrman receives honor from High Plains

Dr. Leo Herrman, associate professor and clinical psychology program director in the Department of Psychology at Fort Hays State University, received a plaque from the governing board and staff of High Plains Mental Health Center in appreciation of his support and collaboration with their agency in training staff in suicide assessment and crisis management.

New professor collaborates on webtext

FHSU choir to perform again at state convention

Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science to hold information sessions across state

Senators participate in faculty orientation

Management Development Center to offer course in human resources

Coming Up

FHSU professor to exhibit sabbatical works

Stephanie Green, associate professor of art at Fort Hays State University, held a four-week residency at the Vermont Studio Center, the largest international residency program for artists and writers in the United States. The exhibition is a celebration of that residency during which Green completed 14 drawings and a series of 68 etchings on the theme of ‘humanity’ using woodcut, monotype and dry point techniques. The exhibition is an opportunity for art lovers and fans of the college’s visual arts program to come and experience the work of this gifted local artist.

World Reader’ study abroad fair set for Sept. 3

Victor E. Garden work days

Kansas Academy of Mathematics and Science to hold information sessions across state

Senators participate in faculty orientation

Management Development Center to offer course in human resources

Tiger Branding Tip: Digital Letterhead

Do you need a digital letterhead to send recommendation letters for students or send formal letters to colleagues and other professionals over the Internet? Printing Services can set up your personal digital stationery template. Call 5310 to order yours.

Do you have good news to share?

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing

216c Sheridan Hall

785-628-4206

universityrelations@fhsu.edu

Tiger Branding Tip: Digital Letterhead

Do you need a digital letterhead to send recommendation letters for students or send formal letters to colleagues and other professionals over the Internet? Printing Services can set up your personalized digital stationery template. Call 5310 to order yours.

Do you have good news to share?

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing

216c Sheridan Hall

785-628-4206

universityrelations@fhsu.edu