

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

October 27, 2016

Top Stories

FHSU's Center for Entrepreneurship to host Kansas Startup Nov. 11-13

10/26/16
Registration is open for Kansas Startup Weekend, which provides the opportunity for people interested in starting a business, nonprofit or cause-related organization to share their ideas with others and create a viable organization over a weekend. More

Accomplishments and Happenings

Nathan Lindsey signs with Arizona Rattlers

10/27/16 FHSU Sports Information
Former Fort Hays State standout defensive back Nathan Lindsey has signed to play for the Arizona Rattlers of the Indoor Football League in 2017. Lindsey played two years at FHSU from 2013 to 2014. More

Sternberg Spooktacular will be Monday at the museum

10/27/16 Hays Post
Eagle TV and FHSU's Sternberg Museum of Natural History again are teaming up to offer the Halloween Spooktacular. The event will be from 2:30 to 4 p.m. at the museum, and will be hosted by Eagle's Scott Boomer and Mike Koerner. More

Sternberg's Haunted Museum set for this weekend

10/27/16 Hays Post
With Halloween weekend comes ghoulish good times, and Fort Hays State University's Sternberg Museum of Natural History will be adding some fright to your weekend with the Haunted Museum. More

Assistant professor publishes article in international journal

10/26/16
Dr. Tamara Lynn, assistant professor of criminal justice at Fort Hays State University, recently partnered with Dr. L. Sue Williams, associate professor of sociology at Kansas State University, to publish an article in "Critical Sociology," an international peer-reviewed journal. More

Next FHSU Management Development Center workshop to cover managing employee absences

10/26/16
A workshop on managing employee absences will be offered in November as part of the fall workshop series from the Management Development Center at Fort Hays State University.

"Absence Management: The Balancing Act -- Address the Issues and Stay Legally Compliant" will be from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15, in FHSU Memorial Union Stouffer Lounge. More

FHSU to host Math Relays

10/26/16
Math students from about 50 western Kansas high schools will come to Fort Hays State University to compete in Math Relays on Thursday, Nov. 10.

Students will participate in a series of math competitions to earn points from their team. More

Water Wise Tigers host nature trail walk, family fun fest

10/25/16
The Fort Hays State University Leadership 310 Class, Water Wise Tigers, recently hosted a free, family fun fest and nature trail walk at the Hays Medical Center.

The purpose of the event was to educate community members about the native vegetation that Hays Medical Center has installed on its land and what it does for the water quality in Hays. More

Police chief invited to national forum on campus firearms carry

10/24/16
Ed Howell, chief of the University Police Department at Fort Hays State University, has been invited to attend a national forum to discuss policy and procedures on "campus carry" -- carrying firearms on campus.

Concealed carry of firearms will be legal on Kansas campuses on July 1, 2017.

The forum, Nov. 15 to Nov. 16 at Collin College, McKinney, Texas, is hosted by the National Center for Campus Public Safety. Campus police chiefs and safety officials will identify critical items of consideration in developing and implementing policies and procedures. More

Former Tiger kicker Drew O'Brien signs with Salina Liberty

10/24/16 FHSU Sports Information
Former Tiger placekicker Drew O'Brien, the all-time leading scorer in Fort Hays State football history, has signed to play the 2017 season with the Salina Liberty, a member of Champions Indoor Football, a 16-team professional league. More

Do you have good news to share? Use our online news form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.