Top Stories

FHSU receives \$1 million from Schmidt estate

12/13/17

Tony Schmidt said he grew up in a house where his parents stressed the importance of faith and giving back. That's part of the reason why he felt honored Thursday to present to Fort Hays State University a $1 million check from the Robert and Patricia Schmidt estate to be used for student scholarships.

FHSU business majors benefit from generosity of former Ness County couple

12/12/17

Gerald and Mary Ann Yeager thought a lot of the education they received at Fort Hays State University. Having no children of their own, the Yeagers felt that FHSU was part of their family, and they were donors to the FHSU Foundation for more than 20 years. Last year, they left a generous donation from their estate to several members of their family, including Fort Hays State.
