

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

January 26, 2018

Top Stories

Fort Hays State selected as a participant in Rudd Foundation scholarship program for Kansas students

01/26/18

Kansas high school students choosing to attend Fort Hays State University will be among those eligible for a new scholarship program created by Wichita's Rudd Foundation.

Local students named to fall 2017 Deans Honor Roll at Fort Hays State University

01/19/18

Deans at Fort Hays State University have named 1,607 students to the Deans Honor Roll for the fall 2017 semester.

Features

Tigers In Service packages 15,000 meals during Alternative Winter Break

01/22/18

Sixteen volunteers from Fort Hays State University's Tigers In Service recently traveled to Houston, Texas, for an alternative winter break focused on community service.

Alternative programs produce huge rewards for Fort Hays State graduate

01/24/18

Complete High School Maize is an alternative school that educates students in grades 9 through 12 who struggled in a traditional high school setting. So Heidi Albin, in her ninth year as a science teacher at the school, comes up with alternative ways to make things work.

Accomplishments and Happenings

Bruner receives national ACPA award

01/22/18

Dr. Brett Bruner, director of transition and student conduct at Fort Hays State University, recently received the 2018 National Student Success Award from the American College Personnel Association: College Student Educators International Coalition for Multicultural Affairs - Latin@/x Network.

Faculty travels to Egypt for research project

01/24/18

Dr. James Austin, assistant professor of English at Fort Hays State University, recently traveled to Cairo, Egypt, to study the writing and literacy development of Egyptian undergraduates at the American University in Cairo.

FHSU students to conduct door-to-door resident water survey

01/24/18

During the month of February, students from Fort Hays State University's Department of Sociology will conduct a survey on water use, water quality and city-sponsored water conservation programs in Hays.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu