

What do you want out of college? Classes? Friends? Community?

Be a part of a pilot "live and learn" community at Fort Hays State University for the 2010-11 academic year.

What's in it for you?

- Guaranteed class placement
- Reserved room on McMindes Hall 1st floor
- Class schedule with your friends
- One-on-one connections with instructors
- Peer help with classes
- Hands-on activities
- Find your FHSU family

Program Courses

Fall 2010

The 7 Revolutions

Current Political Issues

Spring 2011

Intro to Leadership Concepts

English Composition 2

L3: Live, Learn, Lead

Want to be part of one of Fort Hays State University's newest leadership opportunities? Come Learn and Lead where you Live in L3 — FHSU's Living Learning Community.

What is a Living Learning Community? It is a designated space in McMIndes Hall where 25 first-year residents take 6 hours of classes together; participate in leadership opportunities as a team; and make friends for a lifetime! Be a part of this exciting new opportunity by contacting one of the program administrators:

Dr. Jill Arensdorf, Leadership Studies, jrarendorf@fhsu.edu, 785.628.5562

Dr. Tisa Mason, Vice President for Student Affairs, tamason@fhsu.edu, 785.628.4277

Mr. Brian Faust, Director of Residential Life, bgfaust@fhsu.edu, 785.628.4245
