In Case You Missed It ...

Fort Hays State to conduct test of emergency system in ‘active shooter’ scenario

09/16/15
Fort Hays State University will conduct an “active shooter” exercise from about 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 22, at Forsyth Library. The exercise is designed to test the capabilities of law enforcement and emergency management teams in case of an emergency situation.

Sternberg Museum plans Denver trip

09/11/15
David Levering, the education director at Sternberg Museum of Natural History, wants to share his passion for science -- and throw in some craft and specialty beers, too.

“Sternberg Outbound: Denver” is the result. Levering will lead a trip to Denver for adults to explore both science and beer from Friday, Oct. 9, to Sunday, Oct. 11.

Features

Fourth-generation Tiger continues family legacy

09/17/15
Madeline Withington already had a supply of Fort Hays State University T-shirts when she came to campus this fall.

Despite living 50-some miles away -- where she attended school at Ransom-Western Plains, her mother’s alma mater -- Madeline has frequented the FHSU campus most of her life. Now an FHSU freshman, Withington is a fourth-generation Tiger.

Accomplishments and Happenings

Hays Symphony Orchestra gone German on the way to Russian and American

09/17/15
Director Shah Sadikov, assistant professor of music at Fort Hays State University, plans to make the 2015-2016 Hays Symphony orchestra season a cultural experience that will enrich the Hays community.

“IT is important to have music in the community because that shows the community’s artistic richness,” said Sadikov.

Kansas Board of Regents showcases FHSU faculty art

09/15/15
Fort Hays State University art faculty will be featured for the 2015-2016 Kansas Board of Regents Artwork Loan Program, which features Regents university artwork.

FHSU goes green with September events

09/14/15
From yoga to square dancing, Sustainability at Fort Hays State University’s September events show there is more to going green than planting trees -- but they do that, too.

Sustainability Coordinator Andree Brisson leads the sustainability initiative as well as the Earth Rise! Living and Learning Community, a group of first-year students who participate in classes and activities relating to environmental issues.

Younger family member visits campus

09/15/15
Madeline Withington already had a supply of Fort Hays State University T-shirts when she came to campus this fall.

Despite living 50-some miles away -- where she attended school at Ransom-Western Plains, her mother’s alma mater -- Madeline has frequented the FHSU campus most of her life. Now an FHSU freshman, Withington is a fourth-generation Tiger.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

09/17/15
Tickets are now available for the first Encore Series performance of the 2015-2016 season - Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. This performance will take place on Tuesday, September 22nd, at 7:30 PM in the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center.

Do you have good news to share? Click Submit News here or in the News section of the FHSU home page and use our online form.

Office of University Relations and Marketing    204 Sheridan Hall   785-628-4206    universityrelations@fhsu.edu