THE AMERICAN DEMOCRACY PROJECT AT FHSU PRESENTS:

Post-Midterm Election Analysis Panel

Brett Zollinger
Professor and Chair of Sociology Programs
Director of the Docking Institute of Public Affairs

Michael Smith
Professor of Political Science at Emporia State University
Policy Fellow, Docking Institute of Public Affairs

Wendy Rohleder-Sook
Panel Moderator
Assistant Professor of Political Science
Chair of the Department of Communication Studies, Law, and Political Science

Christopher Olds
Associate Professor of Political Science
Department of Communication Studies, Law, and Political Science

Isaac Hargett
Student Coordinator
American Democracy Project at Fort Hays State University

Tuesday
November 10, 2026
6:30 - 8:00 PM
Robbins Forum - Tebo Library

Questions? Contact ADP at adp@fhsu.edu

Sponsored by

- Civic Learning and Engagement
- College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences
- Department of Communication Studies, Law, and Political Science.
- Docking Institute
- Tebo Library
- Food sponsored by American Democracy Project and Civic Learning and Engagement

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY
AMERICAN DEMOCRACY PROJECT

The 2026 midterm elections are constitutionally mandated for all the seats in the U.S. House of Representatives and one-third of the U.S. Senate. Kansas is one of many states holding an election for governor and the state legislature. Elections have consequences all citizens need to understand, so we invite you to hear a panel discussion for clarity on the results of the voting, with analysis of political and legal issues that are likely to unfold in the coming months.