COURSE INFORMATION:

Pre-requisite: ART 201 Survey of Art History I and ART 202 Survey of Art History II or instructor permission.

This course is a survey of major works of European art from approximately 1300 to 1700, and includes all arts, with a focus on painting, sculpture, and the formal analysis of the artwork. As a foundation for interpreting these works, the course will emphasize the social, religious, and political contexts in which the artists worked, as well as the role of the patron in the creative process.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Recognize the major art styles, movements, and artists within the Renaissance and Baroque periods.
- Assess the relationship between the development of the major art styles and the political, social, religious, and/or intellectual ideas of the Renaissance and Baroque periods.
- Identify the influences of past and contemporary art on the evolution of art from the Renaissance and Baroque periods.
- Analyze and evaluate Renaissance and Baroque visual material while employing descriptive, conceptual, and appropriate vocabulary.

ATTENDANCE:

The study of art history requires familiarity with a large number of images and concepts. Excessive absences will therefore jeopardize your final grade. It is your responsibility to make up all materials missed due to absence.

Students will lose 2 attendance points for each absence and 1 attendance point for each tardy, in addition to any points given for participation and/or miscellaneous in-class assignments.

If you miss an exam and/or deadline because of illness or other emergency, you must notify the instructor as soon as possible. Make-up examinations will ONLY be given for DOCUMENTED reasons involving personal, medical, and / or family emergencies.

Make-up examinations will not be given for oversleeping, club activities, computer malfunctions, jobs, and/or routine doctor (or other) appointments.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

ALL cell phones / electronic devices must be PUT AWAY and SILENCED while students are in class. The use of laptop computers is permitted ONLY if students are using the computers to take notes or for purposes related to the class. Attendance and/or participation points may be deducted due to unauthorized use of devices in class.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

All assignments must be your own work! Visual and/or written plagiarism will not be tolerated. Students are encouraged to read FHSU's Academic Honesty Policy, which is found in the University Catalog and online at:

http://www.fhsu.edu/academic/provost/handbook/ch_2_academic_honesty/

SPECIAL LEARNING CONDITIONS / ACCOMMODATIONS:

Fort Hays State University, in accordance with The Americans with Disabilities Act, provides assistance and resources for students with disabilities. The Student Accessibility Services office is located within Health and Wellness Services in the Fischli-Wills Center for Student Success, Room 301, 785-628-4401. This is the appropriate office for students, faculty or staff to contact to verify and notify the University of a student's documented disability. After verification of a documented disability, the Student Accessibility Services office will initiate a request for services. Students should contact the instructor within the first two weeks of class if they require special accommodations for test taking, carrying out assignments, or any other need for assistance.

TITLE IX:

FHSU is committed to fostering a safe and productive learning environment. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex, gender, and gender identity are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. This includes all types of gender and relationship violence, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, domestic and dating violence, and stalking. If you wish to report an incident or have questions about school policies and procedures regarding Title IX issues, please contact Laurie Larrick, University Compliance Officer and the FHSU Title IX Coordinator, at lelarrick@fhsu.edu or (785) 628-4175. The Compliance Officer can help connect you to campus and outside resources, discuss all of your reporting options, and assist with any concerns you may have.
