

Progressive Learning with TIGERS

Teamwork	Interpersonal Growth	Global Citizen	Engaged	Resiliency	Service-Minded
Students will demonstrate their ability to work together with other individuals to identify group strengths and limitations while determining their own leadership dynamic in a group setting.	Students will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze complex ideas, synthesize information and apply innovative problem-solving strategies in real-world contexts.	Students will demonstrate an understanding of diverse cultural perspectives, engage respectfully with individuals from varied backgrounds, and apply inclusive practices in both local and global contexts.	Students will demonstrate the ability to be actively engaged in a program by communicating their ideas, questions, and seeking out ways they can find a sense of belonging on campus.	Students will demonstrate the ability to persevere through challenges, adapt to setbacks, and maintain a positive attitude while applying problem-solving strategies to overcome obstacles in academic and personal contexts	Students will demonstrate a commitment to civic responsibility by actively participating in community service, fostering positive relationships, and contributing to societal improvement both locally and globally
The students will be able to make a connection in a team setting.	The students will explore different growth opportunities.	The students will explore different values and perspectives than themselves.	The students will explore involvement opportunities.	The students will learn how to be independent.	The students will explore service opportunities.
The students will be able to build a team independently.	The students will be able to identify their strengths and limitations.	The students will develop a new set of values and build upon existing values.	The students will develop and seek out opportunities for growth in their specific area of interest.	The students will be able to navigate through challenges.	The students will learn specific areas of service.
The students will be able to identify the strengths and limitations of a team to achieve a goal.	The students will be able to use their strengths to identify problems and develop strategies to solve them.	The students will demonstrate an appreciation for other values and perspectives.	The students will develop a sense of belonging by engaging other students.	The students will demonstrate adaptability.	The students will understand the importance and need for service and learning.
The students will be able to identify team dynamics and adapt to problems.	The students will be able to critically analyze	The students will be engaged and advocate for other values and perspectives.	The students will demonstrate mentorship skills.	The students will develop positive strategies and skills to adapt to challenges.	The students will initiate service-learning opportunities and foster relationships with community partners.