

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY WELLNESS CENTER

PATRON DRESS CODE

In an effort to create a welcoming and inclusive environment for all members, as well as reduce the risk of bacterial disease transmission, and prolong the life of exercise equipment, the Tiger Wellness Center dress code is strictly enforced.

Proper workout clothing and shoes are required in the Tiger Wellness Center. Germs can be transmitted from person to person when left on equipment and machines from sweat. Cleaning equipment after use, good personal hygiene and wearing proper workout clothing that covers the body is essential to preventing the spread of germs and diseases.

What To Wear

- Appropriate footwear, closed toe, closed heel, non-marking athletic wear shoes
- Unaltered shirts which cover the entire stomach, chest, ribcage, and back
- Pants or shorts that cover buttocks and groin area

What Not To Wear

- No open-toed shoes, boots, or bare feet
- Ripped or cut-off shirts
- Jeans, cargo shorts, pants with belts, zippers, or metal rivets and buttons
- Clothing with profanity or offensive language may not worn in The Tiger Wellness Center or within our programs

