

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How can I stay informed about FHSU following my retirement?

By becoming a member of the FHSU Alumni Association, before or after you retire, you will receive the ROAR Magazine two times annually and the FHSU Tiger Talk electronic newsletter.

With whom should I leave my permanent address and/or temporary address when I retire?

Please leave those addresses with the Human Resource Office and the President's Office.

Do insurance benefits continue after retirement?

A retiree can choose to continue health and/or life insurance by paying premiums directly to the provider. Contact your Human Resource Specialist for more information.

Do I qualify for emeritus faculty status?

Emeritus status is an honorary title awarded to a retiring faculty member or administrator for extended meritorious service. Individuals are recommended for that status by their department or administrative unit, subject to approval by the President.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations on your retirement. Fort Hays State University thanks you for your years of service and appreciates all of your contributions to our institution.

CONTACT US

Human Resource Office

785-628-4462

President's Office

785-628-4232

Fort Hays State University

FACULTY AND STAFF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

ATHLETICS

There is free general admission for regular season games. Additional charges will apply for chair back seating at football games and lower level seating for basketball games. Post-season games are full price. An athletics pass will come in the mail from the President's Office each fall after retirement.

CUNNINGHAM FACILITIES

Access to the Tiger Fitness Center, pool and gyms are available by a one-time purchase of $50. Stop by Cunningham Hall 111 to receive your lifetime retiree pass.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Participation in campus organizations is generally free, but please check with the sponsors or presidents of those groups in which you wish to participate.

CULTURAL EVENTS

Tickets for the Campus Theatre Production can be purchased in Malloy Hall 102. Senior citizens over 65 receive a discount on Encore Series tickets.

TIGER IDENTIFICATION CARD

You are eligible to exchange your current Faculty/Staff Tiger Card for a Retiree Tiger Card. Please contact the Tiger Card Center in the Memorial Union to obtain your new card.

LIBRARY ACCESS

Library access is free of charge.

HALF CENTURY CLUB

The FHSU Alumni Association invites all retirees to join the Half Century Club free of charge. The club meets twice annually, once in the spring and once in the fall during homecoming.

EMAIL ACCESS

Contact TigerTech to continue using your FHSU email account after retirement.

AUDITING

Most courses can be audited at no charge, but only with permission of the instructor. You will take no examinations nor receive course credit.

CAMPUS PARKING

An honorary parking permit will be provided to all retirees. Simply go to the Center for Public Safety in Custer Hall 112 to obtain your permits.