Organizational Leadership Major Curriculum Guide

The Bachelor of Arts or Science degree with a Major in Organizational Leadership is a comprehensive 36 credit-hour program designed to equip students to be effective working in modern organizations. With curriculum that provides rigorous scientific theory, practical skills and behaviors, and extensive fieldwork and applied practice, students are prepared for a variety of career opportunities after graduation.

At its core, leadership is about being effective working with people to enact positive change. Within the Organizational Leadership major, students will learn a number of in-demand skills that allow them to engage with that effectiveness working with others. Skills such as problem solving, team dynamics, collaboration, strategic planning, conflict management, communication, and change making are all consistently rated as among the most critical skill sets that employers seek in graduates, and are universally transferrable to any context.
