

VOSS ADVANCED LEADERSHIP UNDERGRADUATE EXPERIENCE

Frequently Asked Questions

The VALUE Program is made possible through the generous donations of the Omer G. Voss family. For more information about VALUE, visit www.fhsu.edu/leadership and click on VALUE Program, or contact the Leadership Programs.

What are the requirements of the program?

All participants in the program are required to

- Attend one VALUE orientation
- Read When Everyone Leads and the Kansas Leadership Center (KLC) Guidebook and participate in guided discussion
- Attend the When Everyone Leads conference at the Kansas Leadership Center
- Complete an end of the year reflection by May

Is this program like LDRS 310: Field Work in Leadership Studies?

While there are similarities between the VALUE Program's components and the LDRS 310 course, this program is co-curricular (not a class) with a deep focus on understanding operations and collaboration. This program is designed to prepare you for success in your career and community life.

What scholarships are available?

Students accepted into the VALUE Program will receive a $1,000 scholarship ($500/semester) to assist in covering the costs of the Advanced Leadership Lab courses. Additional support will be provided through travel and project funding.

Which conference(s) might I get to attend?

Students in VALUE are afforded the opportunity to attend When Everyone Leads conference at the Kansas Leadership center in Wichita, Ks.

Can graduate students participate?

No. This program is exclusively for undergraduate students.

When will applicants be selected?

VALUE participants will be chosen from the pool of applicants and notified within three weeks of the application due date.
