INTRODUCTIONS & ICEBREAKER

VALUE BACKGROUND

The Voss Advanced Leadership Undergraduate Experience (VALUE) is the result of a generous gift, provided to the Department of Leadership Studies, from the family of Omer G. Voss.

The aim of the program is to prepare students for the real-world, and learn how to “get things done” and collaborate in a professional environment.

WHAT EMPLOYERS WANT

Employers are increasingly seeking students who:

- have leadership experiences
- can work in a team
- can communicate well
- solve problems
- have a strong work ethic

The VALUE program aims to offer students the experiences to gain these abilities and enhance your leadership education.

WHAT IS VALUE?

VALUE is an undergraduate program for students that show great leadership potential.

Comprised of both curricular and co-curricular experiences, VALUE will offer students the opportunity to gain experience in one of three sectors:

- Corporate leadership,
- Civic/non-profit leadership, or
- Scholarship/Leadership research

Paired with a mentor, students will complete a large project over the course of the year.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Operations

- Effectively diagnose the situation, understanding the root causes and issues underlying problems and challenges
- Demonstrate initiative to both introduce change and persist to see change through to its completion
- Create and execute change plans around their specified track.
- Learn to make conscious choices about interventions throughout the change process

Collaboration

- Understand themselves and their role on the team
- Work successfully in a team environment
- Enhance their ability to network and communicate effectively
- Demonstrate the ability to energize and effectively work across factions with multiple stakeholders

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- Attend all required VALUE events (e.g. orientations)
- Complete all coursework for two, three credit hour Advanced Leadership Lab courses, offered in the fall and spring semesters
- Meet with a mentor a minimum of two times per month
- Complete a project within a chosen program track
- Compile an end-of-program portfolio demonstrating competency in the program's learning objectives

TRACKS

Corporate leadership

- Internships at local organizations

Civic/Non-profit leadership

- Serviceships in the CCL, or other non-profit organization

Scholarship/Leadership research

- Undergraduate research projects

CORPORATE

Operating within a for-profit organization, you'll work on a single or variety of projects. Projects should be developed to move the organization forward, meeting its needs, and achieving it's set goals while working under its values.

Past Projects

- Strategic Planning Consulting Firm intern
- Marketing internship for local business(es)
- Product Sales Intern for local organization
- Business development for self-owned business

CIVIC/NON-PROFIT

Operating within a non-profit organization or for the purpose of a non-project project, utilize leadership skills and behaviors for the common good.

Past projects:

- Marketing and event coordination
- Fundraising efforts for the International Sister City Committee in the City of Hays
- Social work/therapy intern for local children's psychiatric hospital
- Campus-wide Body Positivity Awareness Campaign
- City-wide "Be Kind" campaign in Salina, KS

Potential Project for 2018-19

- Work with Heartland Community Foundation to increase the number of high-quality grant proposals, through Strategic Grant Planning workshops and marketing

SCHOLARSHIP/RESEARCH

Utilizing various leadership skills and behaviors, perform research about a particular topic of interest, OR about an organization, catering to its need(s).

Past Projects

- Followership styles of giraffes
- Understanding the “calling” of religious leaders
- Gender and relationship violence on the FHSU campus
- Former presidents and leadership styles

RESEARCH:
WHY IN THE WORLD WOULD I WANT TO DO THAT?

POINTS TO PONDER

What images come to mind when you hear the term “research”?

POINTS TO PONDER

Who comes to mind when you hear the term “researcher”?

THE NEED

Many organizational leaders make ill-informed and irrational judgments about organizational change

- While leadership does require intuition, many decisions could, and should, be based on well developed data to inform decisions

Purpose:

- Provide necessary knowledge & skills to design and execute research/assessment activities

TYPES OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

Pure or fundamental research

- Intent of advancing knowledge or theoretical understanding
- Developing refining leadership theories
- Examining factors associated with the development of a particular leadership style
- Examining outcomes of associated with particular leadership theory

TYPES OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

Applied Research

- Intent of applying research results to some specific problem
- Needs assessment of a community issue
- Gauging the level of employee morale/satisfaction
- Conducting performance appraisals; in order to implement reward systems (e.g., bonuses, merit pay)

TYPES OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

Evaluation Research:

- Determine the merit (e.g., quality), worth (e.g., value), significance (e.g., importance) of something such as a program, policy, or consumer product
- Leadership Development:
 - Assessment of learning: what worked? What didn't?
 - Evaluation of community programs

EXAMPLES OF LDRS FACULTY PROJECTS

- Understanding community impact from LDRS 310 project teams
- Understanding factors associated with effective online 310 student projects
- Understanding the use of social media in non-profit organization
- Determining effectiveness of batterer intervention training
- Examine changes in students' Psychological Capital through a leadership education program

EXAMPLES OF LDRS STUDENT PROJECTS

- Understanding the development of effective peer mentoring relationships within learning communities
- Understanding effectiveness of new academic advising initiatives at FHSU

MENTOR-MENTEE ROLES & EXPECTATIONS

WORKING WITH A MENTOR

The VALUE program has identified several professionals to serve as your potential mentors throughout the next year. All mentors have experience in one or more VALUE tracks.

Mentors are coaches who will guide you through this experience by:

- Establishing a meaningful relationship with you
- Providing honest and constructive feedback regarding your project
- Challenging you to take positive risks
- Sharing his/her experiences with you
- Offering you advice, but only when you ask them to
- Engage in meaningful reflection with you

WORKING WITH A MENTOR

Mentors are NOT:

- A supervisor
- To give you “advice” on academic coursework
- To track your VALUE program requirements
- To control your project progress

HOW ARE YOU MATCHED WITH A MENTOR?

Mentors are matched with scholars based on shared VALUE track interests.

For example, a mentor with experience in civic/non-profit leadership will be paired with a scholar who desires the same track experience.

You will not be paired with a potential supervisor of your project.

YOUR ROLE AS A STUDENT MENTEE

As a student mentee you :

- Are committed to your personal and professional growth
- Show initiative to improve
- Are respectful of your mentor's feedback
- Are respectful of your mentor's time
- Are responsible, organized, and attentive
- Are invested in your development as well as the development of others
- Are dedicated to working through the leadership process

THE LOGISTICS

- Meet with your mentor a minimum of twice per month during the fall and spring semesters in person OR via another agreed-upon mode of communication
- Maintain a continuous, open line of communication with your mentor
- Submit mentor evaluations each semester

ESTABLISHING AN EFFECTIVE MENTOR-STUDENT RELATIONSHIP

Relationship is the operative word – as with any relationship it is the responsibility of both parties to create openness and trust. It is crucial for the mentor and the mentee to discuss their hopes and expectations at the outset. The Mentor-Mentee agreement located in the Student Handbook can guide your conversation. Other things to discuss include:

- Time, place, and means for contact and meetings (e.g. e-mail, telephone, face-to-face, times of day, days of week, etc.)
- Mutual availability
- How differences or conflicts might be handled, should they arise
- How feedback to each other will be managed

YOUR FIRST MENTOR-STUDENT MEETING

Typically, first meetings allow two people to get to know a little bit about each other, attach a face to a name, and gain a bit of comfort.

To do this, you need to think about what setting would feel comfortable for both of you, such as:

- FHSU Memorial Union
- Local coffee shop
- Local restaurant for a lunch/dinner meeting
- Skype or Zoom

It is the responsibility of the VALUE Scholar to contact his/her mentor to schedule the first meeting.

YOUR FIRST MENTOR-STUDENT MEETING

Also, plan out some conversation starters by asking yourself:

- What are things I could tell my mentor about myself that would help us get to know each other a little bit?
- What about my story might be interesting and relevant to him/her?
- What are some questions I could ask my mentor to get to know him/her a little bit?

MENTOR-STUDENT CONFIDENTIALITY

Trust is an important part of the mentoring relationship.

We have asked your mentor to keep student confidences private, whenever possible.

However, if you happen to indicate that you, or someone else, may be in danger, mentors are required to immediately notify the Director of VALUE and/or the Chair of Leadership Studies.

EVALUATION OF MENTORS

Students are not the only ones who can learn from participating in VALUE, mentors can too!

The Director of VALUE will administer an evaluation twice per semester, to give both you and your mentor the opportunity to evaluate each other.

Learn from the results!
