

POLICY TITLE: Tuition Assistance Program

POLICY PURPOSE: Fort Hays State University provides tuition assistance for employees, their spouses and dependents. The Tuition Assistance Program is available to benefits eligible employees of FHSU and, through a waiver program, the FHSU Foundation. Qualifying employees, spouses, and dependents may receive assistance year round for both on-campus and on-line courses.

BACKGROUND: Fort Hays State University Tuition Assistance Program was initially established for the 2005 - 2006 academic year.

APPLIES TO: A FHSU or FHSU Foundation employee with a contract or appointment stipulating work for FHSU of at least fifty (50) percent of full-time in a contract or appointment year, a lawful spouse or dependent of an eligible employee. Qualifying new employees are eligible upon the effective date of hire. Qualifying existing employees are immediately eligible. A dependent, is defined as an unmarried natural child, adopted child, stepchild or legal ward under the age of 25 of an eligible FHSU or FHSU Foundation employee.

POLICY STATEMENT: Fort Hays State University will provide tuition assistance (participants are required to pay all applicable fees) for employees, their spouses, and dependents of employees. The definition of each eligible group is provided below along with general eligibility criteria. Also included is a section regarding application procedures. Be sure to examine the criteria carefully and contact the FHSU Human Resource Office with questions regarding eligibility or the Financial Assistance Office for questions regarding specific awards.

General Program Definition and Eligibility

Employee - An employee with a contract or appointment form stipulating work for FHSU or FHSU Foundation of at least fifty (50) percent of full-time in a contract year is considered eligible.

- Qualifying new employees are eligible upon the effective date of hire. Qualifying existing employees are immediately eligible. Employee must be admitted to the University.

- A maximum of 6 credit hours (graduate or undergraduate) per semester is covered for fall, intersession/spring, and summer.
- On-campus and FHSU Online credit hours are included. Maximum allowed per benefit is in-state on-campus tuition for undergraduate and graduate level courses.
- A 2.0 minimum FHSU undergraduate GPA, and a 3.0 graduate GPA must be maintained.
- Classes cannot be taken during regular business hours unless there are extenuating circumstances and prior approval is granted by the employee's supervisor and any appropriate Vice President or Dean.
- Employees shall seek approval and obtain supervisor and any appropriate Vice President or Dean's signatures on the Tuition Assistance Application.
- Non-credit workshops, community education, and concurrent enrollment courses are not included.
- Courses must be taken for professional development purposes that benefit both the employee and employer.
- Employees with less than a full-time appointment will receive tuition benefits consistent with their FTE (i.e., A .5 FTE employee will receive 50% tuition assistance).

Spouse – Any lawful spouse of an eligible employee of FHSU or FHSU Foundation.

- A qualifying spouse is eligible when the employee becomes eligible.
- Spouse must be admitted to the University and degree seeking.
- A maximum of 12 undergraduate credit hours, or 9 graduate hours is covered for fall, intersession/spring and 9 undergraduate credit hours or 6 graduate hours in the summer.
- On-campus and FHSU Online credit hours are included. Maximum allowed per benefit is in-state on-campus tuition for undergraduate and graduate level courses.
- A 2.0 minimum FHSU undergraduate GPA, and a 3.0 graduate GPA must be maintained.
- Non-credit workshops, community education, and concurrent enrollment courses are not included.

- Spouses of part-time employees will receive tuition reduction commensurate with the level of FTE (i.e., the spouse of a .5 FTE employee will receive up to a 50% tuition assistance.)

Dependent – A dependent is defined as an unmarried natural child, adopted child, stepchild or legal ward of an eligible employee under the age of 25. The dependent may be claimed as a dependent of the employee for income tax purposes based on IRS guidelines. In the case of a legal separation or divorce, a natural or adopted child or legal ward may participate regardless of which parent declares the child as a dependent for income tax purposes. In addition, the dependent must be a high school graduate.

- Dependent student must be admitted to the University and degree seeking. The benefit is limited to the dependent's first bachelor's degree.
- A maximum of 12 undergraduate credit hours per semester is covered for fall, intersession/spring and 9 undergraduate credit hours in the summer.

- Non-credit workshops, community education, and concurrent enrollment courses are not included.
- A qualifying dependent is eligible for tuition assistance when the employee becomes eligible.
- Dependents of part-time employees will receive maximum tuition reduction commensurate with the level of FTE (i.e., the dependent of a .5 FTE employee will receive up to 50% in tuition assistance.)

Application Procedure

Each eligible group (employee, spouse, or dependent) has a separate application available. Employees must submit an Application for Tuition Assistance, http://www.fhsu.edu/humanresourceoffice/Other-Benefits/#Tuition_Assistance to the FHSU Human Resource Office each semester. Complete applications will be reviewed by the Human Resource Office to confirm employment and spouse and dependent eligibility. Applications will then be forwarded to the Financial Assistance Office for calculation of assistance amount and posting to accounts.

Application Deadlines:

Fall – First Friday in August at 4:30 pm
Spring – First Friday in December at 4:30 pm
Summer – First Friday in May at 4:30 pm
