

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

May 10, 2019

Top Stories

Fort Hays State University announces new provost

05/06/19

Fort Hays State University is pleased to announce the selection of Dr. Jill Arensdorf, current chair of the university's Department of Leadership Studies, as its next provost and vice president for academic affairs.

FHSU celebrates Scholarly and Creative Activities Day

05/06/19

Over 100 posters were exhibited and over 840 students, faculty and community members participated as presenters or attendees at Fort Hays State University's annual John Heinrichs Scholarly and Creative Activities Day on Wednesday, April 24.

FHSU commencement, spring 2019

05/09/19

For the third year in a row, more than 4,000 graduates will cross the stage during Fort Hays State University's spring commencement ceremonies. To accommodate this large volume of graduates and their families, the university will continue holding two ceremonies.

Features

At your service: LDRS 310 Fort Hays State students

05/08/19

Caden Frank came to Fort Hays State University planning to focus on pre-engineering coursework. After one class in the Department of Leadership Studies, Frank changed his mind.

Fascination with 16th-century Spaniards, pirates leads professor to research on supply chains

05/03/19

State-of-the-art supply chain and logistics best-practices can trace their origins to the Spanish monarchy that established dominance in the Caribbean and South America in the 16th and 17th centuries, according to a new book chapter written by Dr. Robert Lloyd, assistant professor of management at Fort Hays State University.

Accomplishments and Happenings

12 students to receive Noyce Scholarship

05/09/19

Twelve science and math students at Fort Hays State University have been awarded the National Science Foundation's Noyce Scholarship for the upcoming school year.

Dr. Pauline Scott and students present at national conference

05/06/19

Fort Hays State University's Dr. Pauline Scott, professor of English, and graduate students Stacie Rupp, Vanessa Schumacher and Karel Webster presented their research at the College English Association 2019 national conference in New Orleans.

Tourism students show hospitality by hosting event

05/07/19

In celebration of National Travel and Tourism Week, Fort Hays State University's tourism and hospitality management program helped coordinate a Tourism Expo Tuesday in the Memorial Union.

Online student to present research on electoral college, swing states

05/08/19

Jonathan Clayton, a Fort Hays State University Virtual College student, was accepted to present his research, "What Makes a State Swing?," at the quarterly Research Association for Interdisciplinary Studies conference at Johns Hopkins University in Rockville, Maryland.

Jenna Radtke has busy second year of graduate school

05/06/19

Jenna Radtke, Bejou, Minn. (56516), graduate assistant in the Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center has had a busy second year of graduate study that will culminate with graduation in May with a Master of Science in Education in higher education student affairs from Fort Hays State University.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu