

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

October 25, 2019

Top Stories

FHSU celebrates the Bickles and their support of the university

10/25/19

Don and Chris Bickle have long been known for their philanthropy and support of Fort Hays State University. A reception earlier this week in FHSU's Center for Applied Technology celebrated the couples latest $1 million commitment to the university.

Presidential Speaker Series to feature first female NFL official

10/23/19

Sarah Thomas is the first woman to officiate a major college football game, the first full-time female NFL game official and, in January this year, she became the first woman to referee an NFL postseason game.

Features

Plymouth Schoolhouse continues to remind people of Fort Hays State's culture of persistence

10/23/19

Bricks-and-mortar education was the only choice for formal instruction back in the days of one-room schoolhouses. In today's digital age, students can study from anywhere at any time.

Accomplishments and Happenings

National science grant to Fort Hays State provides training for rural teachers

10/22/19

In Fort Hays State's efforts to serve rural Kansans, this grant provides training to rural Kansas teachers of middle-to-high school students to teach how mathematics and science is applied to real-world experiences.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu