

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

March 6, 2020

Features

Sternberg museum adds new comparative vertebrate anatomy camp

03/02/20

The list of nine Sternberg camps for high school students now includes two sessions on comparative vertebrate anatomy, which is a two-week intensive short course for students interested in biology. The first of two sessions will be held at Sternberg Museum and FHSU beginning June 21, and the other at the University of Oregon, set to begin on July 26.

Coronavirus can't stop one FHSU student's education in China

03/04/20

Students at Quality Schools International (QSI) of Zhuhai are still busy learning in their homes, and David Kalberg is still able to fulfill his student teaching requirements for his teaching degree from Fort Hays State University.

Accomplishments and Happenings

Virtual College gains 13th consecutive Military Friendly designation

02/28/20

Fort Hays State University has been rated a Military Friendly institution by Viqtory, a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business.

FHSU-KSBDC, K-State Extension schedule program on estate planning

02/28/20

Planning for the future is vital, and families must take steps to ensure assets for the next generation. The Kansas State University's K-State Research and Extension and the Fort Hays State University-Small Business Development Center are here to help.

Students embark on unique reading research project

03/02/20

Under the direction of assistant professors Dr. April Terry (criminal justice) and Dr. Sarah Broman Miller (teacher education), 31 students are working with 10 incarcerated mothers and two grandmothers on a literacy project to help the inmates connect with their loved ones through reading.

Kansas Wetlands Education Center makes plans for science over spring

03/02/20

Seeing through eagles' eyes, extracting strawberry DNA, and a bingo scavenger hunt are among the activities created by the Kansas Wetlands Education Center to entertain and educate budding young scientists over the spring break in March.

SGA to hold the Big Event

03/03/20

Fort Hays State University's Student Government Association will host the 10th annual Big Event alongside the FHSU Foundation, Tigers in Service, and Student Engagement, as part of "I Love FHSU" week.

SBDC offering free tax workshops in Hays

03/04/20

The Small Business Development Center at Fort Hays State University will offer free tax services this month for small business owners.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu