FHSU ACCELERATING EFFORTS TO ASSIST STUDENTS IN URGENT FINANCIAL NEED

04/07/2020

Every gift matters. This is the slogan the Fort Hays State University Foundation has used for years in its fundraising efforts, and it probably has no truer significance than right now.

CARE TEAMS WORKING TO KEEP STUDENTS CONNECTED

04/09/2020

On a campus with a rich tradition for innovation, persistence and strong personal connections between faculty, staff and students, what first appeared a challenge almost immediately revealed itself to be a tremendous opportunity. The idea of creating “care teams,” groups of university community volunteers who could maintain ongoing contact with students now learning from a distance, quickly took shape.

DEAR WORLD:

03/24/2020

These are challenging times. There is a lot of information about COVID-19 floating around out there, and it just adds to other stressors we have in our lives. We live in a time of instant access to world news whether it's via television or social media. When life feels like it's out of control, I would ask that we all remember the control that we do have during times like this.
