Accomplishments and Happenings

FHSU CAMPUS SPRINGS BACK TO LIFE

08/18/20

The Fort Hays State University campus came back to life last week for the fall semester. After five months of empty parking lots, it was hard to find an open parking spot around the residence halls once the move-in process began last week. Over several days, nearly 1,300 students moved into campus housing for the fall term.

FHSU STRIPES FOR HOPE STUDENT ORGANIZATION RAISES MONEY FOR ST. JUDE HOSPITAL

08/19/20

FHSU Stripes for Hope donated $3,500 to the American Lebanese Syrian Associated Charities, the fundraising organization for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. They made the donation after a series of fundraising activities and events, such as the sale of T-shirts during a "No More Cancer" rally.

*Note: This picture was taken at the FHSU Stripes for Hope event last year before the COVID-19 pandemic. Face coverings or masks are currently required in all common spaces on campus.
