Top Story

FHSU, NCK TECH PARTNER TO MAKE TRANSFER PROCESS EASIER

03/30/21

Fort Hays State University announced today that new curriculum guides developed in partnership with North Central Kansas Technical College are now in place to make the path to a four-year degree easier. "The curriculum guides allow students to fully understand ahead of time which of their courses will transfer into our programs at FHSU," said Erica Fisher, director of FHSU's Transfer & Military Center. "By increasing transferrable courses, students complete their degrees faster and with a lower total cost."

Features

FHSU NAMES GREG JORDAN DIRECTOR OF THE KANSAS SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CENTER

03/23/21

Greg Jordan, the current Interim Director of Kansas Small Business Development Center (KSBDC), has been selected to fill the position permanently. Jordan joined Fort Hays State University in 2019 as the associate director of the KSBDC. He previously served as the Associate State Director of the Small Business Development Center Network at the University of Wyoming for eight years.

FHSU'S MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT CENTER TO HOST THREE SPRING WORKSHOPS

04/01/21

The Management Development Center at Fort Hays State University is offering three public workshops this spring. Each workshop is based on sound management theory and delivered in a practical, applied method that allows participants to begin using their newly learned skills as soon as they return to the workplace.

Accomplishments and Happenings

FHSU'S FRANK NAMED A NEWMAN CIVIC FELLOW

03/25/21

Campus Compact, a Boston-based non-profit organization working to advance the public purposes of higher education, has announced its 2021-2022 Newman Civic Fellows. The list of 212 students for this coming school year includes Caden Frank, a graduate student at Fort Hays State University.

NATIONAL ATHLETIC TRAINING MONTH A BUSY ONE AT FORT HAYS STATE

03/29/21

March is National Athletic Training Month, and March 2021 has been one of the busiest to date for athletic trainers at Fort Hays State University. FHSU's athletic trainers (ATs) are responsible for the care of student-athletes in 16 men's and women's varsity sports. In addition to providing medical services for the 10 athletic teams that regularly compete during the spring semester, the eight-member AT staff along with AT faculty have been caring for fall sports athletes whose seasons were pushed until this spring because of the coronavirus pandemic.
