FHSU INAUGURAL GIVING DAY A HUGE SUCCESS

04/28/21

Donors responded in droves for last week's inaugural Giving Day at Fort Hays State University, raising more than $270,000 in a 48-hour period. Just as FHSU banded together as a family throughout a year unlike any other, we came together once again to #SupportTheFort. The success of FHSU's first Giving Day proves further that Fort Hays State is a university of resilience, strength, and community.

FHSU ANNOUNCES EVENT CONSIDERATIONS FOR SPRING COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES

04/26/21

Fort Hays State University will hold its spring commencement ceremonies on Friday, May 14, and Saturday, May 15. There will be four ceremonies, divided by college, and though they will mirror the traditional ceremonies that the university has hosted in the past, graduates and guests planning to attend should make note of a few changes.

FHSU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NOMINEES FOR 2021'S TORCH, PILOT, AND LIGHTHOUSE AWARDS

04/27/21

Nominees for three top commencement awards have been announced by the Fort Hays State University Alumni Association. Nineteen graduating seniors have been nominated for the 2021 Torch Award, the highest student honor, and 35 faculty members were nominated by members of the class of 2021 for the Pilot Award for an outstanding faculty member. Three graduate students, completing their degrees this spring, were nominated for the association's Lighthouse Award to honor the outstanding student completing graduate studies.
