HIGH PLAINS MUSIC CAMP RETURNS TO FHSU CAMPUS

06/01/21

Dr. Ivalah Allen is "thrilled" to announce the 74th annual High Plains Music Camp at Fort Hays State University will be in person after having to hold the 2020 version virtually because of the pandemic. The camp, one of a kind in Kansas, is an opportunity to learn from nationally recognized musicians, teachers, and conductors. There will be sessions for middle school band and four areas of instruction featuring high school students – band, jazz band, orchestra, and vocal. The dates for the camp – which include instruction for middle and high school students – are July 11-17.

FHSU PSYCHOLOGY STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO PRESTIGIOUS HONOR SOCIETY

06/04/21

Fort Hays State University's College of Health and Behavioral Sciences announced recent student inductees into Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology. The Psi Chi Honor Society recognizes and promotes excellence in the science and application of psychology. Applicants must meet grade point average criteria as well as rank in the top 30 percent of psychology students to be considered for induction to the honor society. Select FHSU psychology students, attending virtually and on-campus, displayed outstanding academic achievement in the program. Recognized for their dedication and determination, 23 students were officially inducted into Psi Chi in April.
