TACO SHOP INCREASES OFFERING OF FHSU STUDENT EMPLOYEE SCHOLARSHIPS

10/15/21

Through the years, the Hays business community has proven its generosity in support of Fort Hays State University and its students. Robert Long, owner and manager of a popular Hays restaurant, Taco Shop, serves as a prime example. Taco Shop previously had three $1,000 annual scholarships available to their FHSU student employees at the restaurant, and Long recently added two additional $1,000 scholarships.

10/13/21

Come visit the Kansas Wetlands Education Center at Cheyenne Bottoms for an afternoon of invertebrate discoveries on Friday, Oct. 22, from 1 to 4:30 p.m. From roly pollys to crayfish and painting with meal worms, there is much to explore as you learn about the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) of some of the creatures that call Cheyenne Bottoms home.

Good News

IRONY AND IRON MAN: THE MARVEL CINEMATIC UNIVERSE AND THE POSTMODERN REJECTION OF VALUES

04/26/21

Camilo Peralta's essay was published as a stand-alone chapter in the 1st edition of Isn't It Ironic?: Irony in Contemporary Popular Culture. In this essay, Peralta explores irony in the MCU, especially as manifested by Tony Stark / Iron Man (who is portrayed by Robert Downey, Jr. in all of the films). Whether facing a personal crisis or world-threatening event, there is no situation Tony cannot bring himself to laugh at, in an attempt to either reduce the stakes or bolster his own courage to face it.
