FROM THE HIGH PLAINS TO THE HIGH SEAS – FHSU STUDENTS EMBRACE GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

01/14/26

For most college students, the start of a new semester means finding the right buildings on campus, scouting out the best parking spots, and settling into a familiar routine of library sessions and coffee runs. But for two Fort Hays State University students, and for one semester, campus isn't made of brick and mortar—it's made of steel, salt water, and 106 days of horizon-chasing.
