BRIGHT LIGHTS AND BIG DREAMS

05/21/26

On a cold Saturday night in February, the lights dimmed at the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center. The crowd grew quiet. Three college students were prepared to take center stage as stars of the show. Every year, the Hays Symphony holds a major competition, the Young Artist Competition. Student musicians at Fort Hays State University (FHSU) compete for a chance to perform as soloists, standing in front of the orchestra and playing the lead part.
