BEAUTIFYING OUR HOME ON THE PLAINS

7/3/25

If you've ever strolled through the Fort Hays State University campus during the warmer months, you've likely noticed the vibrant colors that line our walkways and flower beds — geraniums, lantanas, ornamental peppers, and more, arranged with care and precision. What may look like a simple seasonal refresh is, in fact, the result of countless hours of planning and hands-on work by an exceptional team of dedicated professionals: our Grounds Department.
