Nursing Research Day:
Blending Undergraduate & Graduate Evidence-Based Practice
Wednesday, April 30

‘HOPE‘ is empowering – how can YOU make an imprint?’
Nursing Research Day
April 30th, 2014
Schedule of Events

8:30 am Opening Remarks: Dr. Christine Hober

"HOPE is empowering - How can YOU make an imprint?"

9:00-10:30 am Concurrent Sessions - see following listings
Abstracts available at: www.fhsu.edu/nursing/

10:45-11:45 am Key Note Speaker: Dr. Keith Campbell

"Grant Writing and Social Entrepreneurship"

12:00-1:00 pm Lunch in the Black & Gold Room
(sign-in required)

1:00 pm Research Poster viewing in the Ballroom

1:30-3:00 pm Continued Current Sessions - see listings
Nursing Research Day- April 30th, 2014

9:00-10:30am Concurrent Morning Sessions:

Black and Gold Room-
0900: Jessica Cornejo
0920: Stephanie Yoder- Identifying Triggers of Parental Anxiety in the Pediatric Preoperative Phase
0940: Susan Astrup- An Investigation of Nurse Practitioner Students’ Knowledge of Prescribing Narcotics

Trails Room-
0900: Brenda Sullivan- The Relationship between the Utilization of the Asthma Action Plan and the Effect on Asthma Control
0920: Cassidy Taylor- Primary Care Providers’ Attitudes Toward Obesity
0940: Andrea Skiles- Subjective Exercise Experience of Aerobic vs. Yoga Exercise in Rural Kansas Women
10:00: Jessica Pfeifer- Effects of Yoga on Stress

Pioneer Room-
0900: Tracy Wollenberg- Polymicrogyria: A Diagnosis for a Patient and Their Family
0920: Sarah Tauilli- Exploring Healthy Lifestyles in Children
0940: Kayla Del Rio- Managing the Uncontrolled Diabetic Patient
1000: Karla Montelongo- The Effects Exercise Has on the Lipid Levels for Post-Menopausal Women

Stouffer Lounge-
0900: Heather Webber- Patient Satisfaction with Nurse Practitioners in Rural Family Practice Clinics
0920: Honey Kibbee- Examination of the Quality of Sleep and Sleep Hygiene Practices of Cardiac Rehabilitation Patients
0940: Elizabeth Ahlenstorf- A Retrospective Study of the Relationship between Atopic Dermatitis in Predicting Asthma in Children Ages 1-7
1000: Tara Wendlandt- Migraine Management in the Primary Care Setting
1:30-3:00pm Concurrent Afternoon Sessions

Black and Gold Room-
1:30: Pam Brabec- Do FNP Graduates Plan to Utilize the USPSTF Guidelines for Depression?
1:50: Nicole Thorton- A Non-experimental Approach to Exploring Positive Patient Lifestyle Changes Related to Motivational Interviewing
2:10: Hugo Rodela- Smoking Cessation in Primary Care
2:30: FNP Faculty- Future of the Doctorate of Nursing Practice

Trails Room-
1:30: Wendi Davies- Self-Reported Competiveness and Compliance with Return to Play Guidelines Following Concussion Injury
1:50: Joel Weninger- Lifestyle Modifications before Pharmacotherapy: Is It Being Prescribed?
2:10: Abra Friess- Advanced Directives

Pioneer Room-
1:30: Patricia Drees- Associate Degree Nursing Student Perceptions of Mental Illness and Mental Illness Nursing Practice
1:50: Amy Sharp- The Relationship between Diabetic Patient Compliance and Swanson’s Middle Range of Caring
2:10: Jacquelyn Forssberg- Screening for Oral Health on all Children during Routine Health Supervision Visits Using the Oral Health Risk Assessment Tool

Stouffer Lounge-
1:30: Cristy Mann- The Relationship between Massage Therapy and Its Effect on Anxiety in the Patient with Cancer
2:10: Mackenzie Myers- Cannabis: Benefits and Risks Of Its Medicinal Use in Pain, Nausea, and Loss of Appetite