In Case You Missed It ...

FHSU choirs and ensembles perform at Kansas music convention

FHSU students attend National Collegiate Leadership Conference

The Fort Hays State University Department of Music & Theatre announces the Spring Choral Concert on Tuesday at 7:30 pm on the campus of FHSU. The Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center is located at 140 East 7th Street in Hays, KS. The Spring Choral Concert is free and open to the public.

MakerSpace hosting Break It Day, Make It Day

The MakerSpace, located in the student union, will host a day to break it and make it on Saturday, March 12, from 1 to 3 p.m. People can come in to break apart and experiment with tools and materials. Those who want to make something can work with the MakerSpace staff to come up with a project and make it.

Alpha Kappa Lambda returns to FHSU

The Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity will initiate men of good standing with respectable GPAs and values. Founded in 1914 at the University of California, Berkeley, the fraternity is dedicated to the cultivation of personal and moral excellence.

Employment data reports a 95% success rate for FHSU graduates finding jobs

The Fort Hays State University Office of Career Services reports that 95% of graduates are finding employment within six months of graduation. The Office of Career Services reports on employment data on an annual basis.

FHSU's Felten-Start Theatre

FHSU's Felten-Start Theatre will present Carlo Goldoni's "The Servant of Two Masters" beginning Thursday, March 3, with performances at 7:30 p.m. each evening through Saturday, March 5. The play is a classic Italian comedy, which has been translated into English and performed in Englishspeaking countries for several centuries. It is one of Goldoni's most popular works and has been translated into numerous languages. The play is also known as "Servant of Two Masters" and "Servant of Two Masters."

Changes coming in times and procedures for Tiger athletic teams

The Fort Hays State University men's and women's basketball teams will be making another long one this week when the Tigers travel to the Midwest for the NCAA Division II Men's and Women's Basketball Championship.

The Tiger Marketing Tip: Artwork Approval

Before sending to the Print Shop. To allow for possible changes, please email items 10-14 days before the print date.

If you have good news to share, check out the online page and use our online form.

Thanks for your help in before sending to the Print Shop. To allow for possible changes, please email items 10-14 days before the print date.