FHSU signed an agreement with Nanjing University.

FHSU signed a cooperative agreement with rival universities.

FHSU and Nanjing University announced an agreement to collaborate in research and education.

FHSU students are now allowed to smoke on campus.

FDA-approved smoking cessation products, such as nicotine patches or nicotine gum, are excluded from the ban. Smoking is currently allowed in designated areas on campus.

As of July 1, 2016, Fort Hays State University will enforce a tobacco-free campus policy, prohibiting the use of all tobacco products on all areas of the campus.

The legacy of all-time great athlete and spokesman Muhammad Ali, who died on June 3, will continue to inspire FHSU students and community members.

One week, two Hall of Famers for FHSU

Bob Dole's visit to Kansas on March 30, 2016, and Dr. Mirta Martin's recent visit to Pratt Community College.

Foundation greens for FHSU's inaugural HCI reception

Attendees were treated to a Fireside Chat with alumnus John Meinecke. The event also included a reception to benefit the HCI fund.

Learn More

Saudi oil officials deep space

A team of FHSU students will be traveling to the International Space Station as part of the first mission of its kind.

Women's Basketball Academy named nationally for success, growth

The FHSU Women's Basketball Academy has been named nationally for its success and growth.

Community Connection: Mirta Martin

Dr. Mirta Martin is on a mission to "spread our legacy of all-time great athlete and spokesman Muhammad Ali, who died on June 3, 2016, to the world and to make sure people anywhere know of his life and accomplishments of a legendary figure of its own, Muhammad Ali." Meanwhile, FHSU's Jerry Erdman, a Fort Hays State University graduate who works for Lockheed Martin, will speak at a Science Café on June 10, 2016.

One week, two Hall of Famers for FHSU

Bob Dole's visit to Kansas on March 30, 2016, and Dr. Mirta Martin's recent visit to Pratt Community College.

Foundation greens for FHSU's inaugural HCI reception

Attendees were treated to a Fireside Chat with alumnus John Meinecke. The event also included a reception to benefit the HCI fund.

Learn More

Saudi oil officials deep space

A team of FHSU students will be traveling to the International Space Station as part of the first mission of its kind.

Women's Basketball Academy named nationally for success, growth

The FHSU Women's Basketball Academy has been named nationally for its success and growth.

Community Connection: Mirta Martin

Dr. Mirta Martin is on a mission to "spread our legacy of all-time great athlete and spokesman Muhammad Ali, who died on June 3, 2016, to the world and to make sure people anywhere know of his life and accomplishments of a legendary figure of its own, Muhammad Ali." Meanwhile, FHSU's Jerry Erdman, a Fort Hays State University graduate who works for Lockheed Martin, will speak at a Science Café on June 10, 2016.

One week, two Hall of Famers for FHSU

Bob Dole's visit to Kansas on March 30, 2016, and Dr. Mirta Martin's recent visit to Pratt Community College.

Foundation greens for FHSU's inaugural HCI reception

Attendees were treated to a Fireside Chat with alumnus John Meinecke. The event also included a reception to benefit the HCI fund.

Learn More

Saudi oil officials deep space

A team of FHSU students will be traveling to the International Space Station as part of the first mission of its kind.

Women's Basketball Academy named nationally for success, growth

The FHSU Women's Basketball Academy has been named nationally for its success and growth.

Community Connection: Mirta Martin

Dr. Mirta Martin is on a mission to "spread our legacy of all-time great athlete and spokesman Muhammad Ali, who died on June 3, 2016, to the world and to make sure people anywhere know of his life and accomplishments of a legendary figure of its own, Muhammad Ali." Meanwhile, FHSU's Jerry Erdman, a Fort Hays State University graduate who works for Lockheed Martin, will speak at a Science Café on June 10, 2016.

One week, two Hall of Famers for FHSU

Bob Dole's visit to Kansas on March 30, 2016, and Dr. Mirta Martin's recent visit to Pratt Community College.

Foundation greens for FHSU's inaugural HCI reception

Attendees were treated to a Fireside Chat with alumnus John Meinecke. The event also included a reception to benefit the HCI fund.

Learn More

Saudi oil officials deep space

A team of FHSU students will be traveling to the International Space Station as part of the first mission of its kind.

Women's Basketball Academy named nationally for success, growth

The FHSU Women's Basketball Academy has been named nationally for its success and growth.

Community Connection: Mirta Martin

Dr. Mirta Martin is on a mission to "spread our legacy of all-time great athlete and spokesman Muhammad Ali, who died on June 3, 2016, to the world and to make sure people anywhere know of his life and accomplishments of a legendary figure of its own, Muhammad Ali." Meanwhile, FHSU's Jerry Erdman, a Fort Hays State University graduate who works for Lockheed Martin, will speak at a Science Café on June 10, 2016.