In Case You Missed It ...

2015 Kansas Speaks finds low opinion of tax policy effects on economy

Survey shows majority of respondents feel Brownback’s tax policy has hurt Kansas, but majority also say government spending is a “failure” or “tremendous failure” in terms of economic growth.

A chance to hear real-life heroes this week in Krehbiel Library

FHSU student members of the Fort Hays State University history honor society will adjoining classes in the evening to learn about real-life heroes in military history.

Feature

Designs that speak out on contemporary go global

FHSU’s annual art show promotes art that makes a social statement.

Istation presents reading program to FHSU's Tiger Tots

K Hurricane: "Istation Reading, a comprehensive and research-backed reading program, helps develop literacy skills in pre-school learners."

OGA careers Fair will feature 120 employers

Students from 26 Kansas colleges and universities will interview employers from across the state during the annual OGCA career fair.

FHSU alum talks history with students

Dr. Grant K. Thomas, an FHSU alumnus and author, will discuss the history of the United States with FHSU students.

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

“Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!”

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

Times Talk on social networks set for Nov. 4

Dr. Jeffrey Sizer will talk about the changes in social networking and how it impacts the behavior of individuals.

Accomplishments and Happenings

I FED THE TIGER 2015

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

FHSU’s Sternberg Museum hosts safe Trick-or-Treating event Saturday

The museum will be open from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. for the Safe Trick-or-Treating event for children ages 13 and under.

FHSU class tours Truman museum

The class from the National Homeland Security program will tour the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum.

FHSU class tours Truman museum

The class from the National Homeland Security program will tour the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum.

FHSU Agronomy Club selling ‘Eat Beef’ shirts

The club will be selling sweatshirt orders as a fundraiser that will promote agriculture and the beef industry.

2015 Kansas Speaks finds low opinion of tax policy effects on economy

Survey shows majority of respondents feel Brownback’s tax policy has hurt Kansas, but majority also say government spending is a “failure” or “tremendous failure” in terms of economic growth.

A chance to hear real-life heroes this week in Krehbiel Library

FHSU student members of the Fort Hays State University history honor society will adjoining classes in the evening to learn about real-life heroes in military history.

Feature

Designs that speak out on contemporary go global

FHSU’s annual art show promotes art that makes a social statement.

Istation presents reading program to FHSU's Tiger Tots

K Hurricane: "Istation Reading, a comprehensive and research-backed reading program, helps develop literacy skills in pre-school learners."

OGA careers Fair will feature 120 employers

Students from 26 Kansas colleges and universities will interview employers from across the state during the annual OGCA career fair.

FHSU alum talks history with students

Dr. Grant K. Thomas, an FHSU alumnus and author, will discuss the history of the United States with FHSU students.

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

Times Talk on social networks set for Nov. 4

Dr. Jeffrey Sizer will talk about the changes in social networking and how it impacts the behavior of individuals.

Accomplishments and Happenings

I FED THE TIGER 2015

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

FHSU’s Sternberg Museum hosts safe Trick-or-Treating event Saturday

The museum will be open from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. for the Safe Trick-or-Treating event for children ages 13 and under.

FHSU class tours Truman museum

The class from the National Homeland Security program will tour the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum.

FHSU Agronomy Club selling ‘Eat Beef’ shirts

The club will be selling sweatshirt orders as a fundraiser that will promote agriculture and the beef industry.

2015 Kansas Speaks finds low opinion of tax policy effects on economy

Survey shows majority of respondents feel Brownback’s tax policy has hurt Kansas, but majority also say government spending is a “failure” or “tremendous failure” in terms of economic growth.

A chance to hear real-life heroes this week in Krehbiel Library

FHSU student members of the Fort Hays State University history honor society will adjoining classes in the evening to learn about real-life heroes in military history.

Feature

Designs that speak out on contemporary go global

FHSU’s annual art show promotes art that makes a social statement.

Istation presents reading program to FHSU's Tiger Tots

K Hurricane: "Istation Reading, a comprehensive and research-backed reading program, helps develop literacy skills in pre-school learners."

OGA careers Fair will feature 120 employers

Students from 26 Kansas colleges and universities will interview employers from across the state during the annual OGCA career fair.

FHSU alum talks history with students

Dr. Grant K. Thomas, an FHSU alumnus and author, will discuss the history of the United States with FHSU students.

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

Times Talk on social networks set for Nov. 4

Dr. Jeffrey Sizer will talk about the changes in social networking and how it impacts the behavior of individuals.

Accomplishments and Happenings

I FED THE TIGER 2015

Foundation kicks off “I Fed the Tiger” campaign

"Every gift counts but when you double your gift, you double your impact!"

FHSU’s Sternberg Museum hosts safe Trick-or-Treating event Saturday

The museum will be open from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. for the Safe Trick-or-Treating event for children ages 13 and under.

FHSU class tours Truman museum

The class from the National Homeland Security program will tour the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and Museum.