

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

September 1, 2016

Top Stories

Preview event on construction of FHSU's newest academic building set for Sept. 7

09/01/16
The public is invited to a construction preview for the newest academic building on the Fort Hays State University campus.

An update on construction of the Center for Applied Technology and Sculpture is set for 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, in the circular drive on the west side of the Memorial Union. More

KWEC to host annual Butterfly Festival in September

09/01/16
Nine out of 500 monarch butterfly tags recovered recently in Mexico were from butterflies tagged at the Kansas Wetlands Education Center in 2015.

Individuals of all ages will have the opportunity to tag and release their own monarch butterflies during KWEC's annual Butterfly Festival from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Sept. 17, at the center. More

New Lewis Field parking lot opens Thursday; Tiger Tailgating policies announced

08/31/16 FHSU Sports Information Dept
The new parking lot adjacent to Lewis Field Stadium will officially open on Thursday (Sept. 1) at 3 pm. The lot will be available throughout the day on home football dates, with guidelines for tailgating taking effect four hours prior to kickoff. More

Fort Hays State University announces summer 2016 graduates

08/30/16
A total of 470 students completed associate, bachelor's or graduate degrees at Fort Hays State University in the summer 2016 term. More

Features

Student hits jackpot at Fort Hays State and in downtown Hays

08/29/16
Michael Turner was excited about his return to school at Fort Hays State University after sitting out a while to work and help put his girlfriend through school.

His first week back was made even better when he won $500 at last week's fourth annual Core2Campus event in downtown Hays. More

Core2Campus unites students with Hays community

08/26/16
A phrase from the 1989 movie "Field of Dreams" has been misquoted for years as "If you build it, they will come." Nonetheless, that expression -- which is supposed to end with "he will come." -- is one that organizations have been hanging their hats on ever since. Getting students to visit downtown Hays is what the Downtown Hays Development Corp. and Fort Hays State University were hoping to accomplish when they partnered to form "Core2Campus" in 2013. More

Accomplishments and Happenings

Tigers host Missouri Southern in season opener Thursday night

08/31/16 FHSU Sports Information Dept
Fort Hays State Football opens the 2016 season on Thursday night (Sept. 1) when it hosts Missouri Southern. Game time for the Eagle Communications Kickoff Classic is set for 7 pm at Lewis Field Stadium. More

Gala, free admission highlight first concert of Hays Symphony season

08/29/16
The Hays Symphony Orchestra, the longest continuously running community orchestra in Kansas, has an exciting season of Russian masterworks in store.

To get its 103rd season off to a flying start, the first concert will be a gala occasion. All tickets are free thanks to a generous donation from Auto World. Music Director Shokhrukh Sadikov, Shah for short, has planned a program of exciting music by Tchaikovsky, Rimsky-Korsakov and Rachmaninoff. Sadikov is an assistant professor of music and theatre at Fort Hays State University. More

FHSU professor receives award for excellence in teaching sustainable development

08/29/16
Dr. Gregory Weisenborn, associate professor of management and chair of the Department of Management in the College of Business and Entrepreneurship at Fort Hays State University, received the Excellence in Teaching Sustainability Award from the Sustainable Development Division of the Institute of Industrial and Systems Engineers. More

Community Connection: Dr. Irena Ravitskaya

09/01/16 Hays Post/Eagle TV
Mike Cooper visits with Dr. Irena Ravitskaya of Fort Hays State University about the 103rd Season of the Hays Symphony Orchestra. Mrs. Ravitskaya, who immigrated to the United States in 1995 from Moldova (former Soviet Union), will be performing Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2 during the inaugural concert to be held September 10, in the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center. WATCH

Community Connection: Jacquie Jacobs

09/01/16 Hays Post/Eagle TV
Mike Cooper visits with Herndon Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic coordinator, Jacquie Jacobs on what the clinic offers to the local community as well as western Kansans. WATCH

Do you have good news to share? Use our online news form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.